

FIGHTING IN MEXICO IS REPORTED

RESULT OF CLASH WAS NOT LEARNED; TROOPS ON HEELS OF BANDIT LEADER

CAMP OF GENERAL J. J. PERSHING, AT THE FRONT, APRIL 2.—(BY AEROPLANE TO COLONIA DUBLAN, AND BY RADIO TO COLUMBUS, N. M., APRIL 3.)—American cavalrymen encountered a fleeing force of Villa men near early today and sounds of firing have been heard from that direction, but no report has been made to headquarters as to the results. The mountains of Guerrero are being combed thoroughly for Villa by the American forces, but nothing has been learned as to his whereabouts other than that captured bandits said he was being carried further into the mountains in his jolting coach.

General Pershing announced today that troops of the infantry are to be used for mountain climbing, co-operating with the cavalrymen who have borne the brunt of the five days' pursuit of Villa. The infantry men have been going through hardening preparation, in hill climbing marches for about two weeks and their officers say they are in excellent physical trim.

The troops were closely behind Villa yesterday entering the village of — shortly after he had fled from it. It was suspected that he might be hidden in one of its huts and every precaution was taken to effect the capture. Two squadrons of cavalry entered the village from both sides simultaneously.

There have been a number of minor skirmishes in the vicinity of the village, two scouts reporting today that they encountered two Villa men on its outskirts. They fought for five minutes without casualties. American air scouts are now flying over the Villa territory and carrying dispatches from the front to the field base and field headquarters. Motor trucks also have been able to penetrate the mountain waste almost as far as the territory occupied by the cavalry under Colonel George A. Dodd.

El Paso, Tex., April 3.—Reports from Mexican sources in the interior received here today asserted Francisco Villa was headed towards Chihuahua City and that his emissaries were attempting to influence the garrison of the town to break from their alliance to the defunct government.

Nothing was said in the reports of Villa's alleged injuries, an omission which helped to confirm the opinion already freely expressed on the border that the bandit's wounds were an invention of his own, reported with the intention of deceiving his pursuers.

There is something of a mystery attached to the movement of Mexican troops at points close to the border. It is known that large bodies of Carranza soldiers have been moved from camps in the interior to various places within 20 miles of the international line, but no explanation has been given of these maneuvers beyond a general intimation that the defunct government is anticipating an attack by the followers of Diaz, who is now considered the head of the Centrist party.

SUBS ARE ACTIVE

London, April 3.—Included in the list of steamers sunk Sunday are three British vessels. The Ashburton, Goldmouth, and Achilles are the victims. The Ashburton, 4445 tons, was sunk by shrapnel shell, fired by a German submarine. Five members of the crew have been taken to a hospital.

The crew of the Goldmouth, 7,445 tons, was saved, but two were injured. The captain and 62 others of the crew were saved when the liner Achilles went down. Four are missing.

The Norwegian steamship Peter Mammre, 1,080 tons, was sunk Saturday night while at anchor. One man, the sole survivor of the crew of fifteen, has been landed.

The British steamship Perth has been sunk. Several members of the crew were lost and eight were landed. The Perth was unarmed.

The Norwegian steamer Ino, of 702 tons gross, has been sunk. There were no casualties.

RAILROADS PROSPEROUS

Washington, April 3.—Prosperity of railroads throughout the country continues without abatement, reports the Interstate Commerce Commission. Returns from 96 large roads show their net revenue increased from $25,000,000 in Feb., 1915, to $38,000,000 for February, 1916, more than fifty percent. The greatest increase was in the eastern district and amounted to nearly 90 percent.

ASK RECEIVER FOR TOLEDO ST. CAR FIRM

Toledo, O., April 3.—The city of Toledo at noon today applied for the appointment of a receiver for the Toledo Railway and Light Co. The application was filed following a futile conference this morning of traction officials and representatives of the Car Men's Union in an effort to settle the street car situation. No street cars will be in operation until the court acts. This may require several days.

The city's application is based on the ground that the company is not giving service; that the citizens are handicapped and business seriously affected. General organizer Edward Mc Morrow, of the Amalgamated Association of Street Car Employees said today that he was having difficulty in keeping interurban car men from striking in sympathy with Toledo car men.

"I had a big delegation of interurban car men to see me yesterday," he said. "The men are getting restless. In Cincinnati they are being hooted and jeered because they are carrying passengers here, they told me."

THROW MILK TO HOGS IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, O., April 3.—Cleveland today faced a milk shortage while producers are fighting for higher prices.

Producers are throwing great quantities of milk to the hogs rather than ship it to Cleveland at a loss.

A demand for a price increase from 12 and 13 cents a gallon to 15 cents has been made.

There will be an absolute embargo on shipments of milk to Cleveland unless the price is met by the wholesalers, says a prominent producer.

WHEAT SHOWS STEEP ADVANCE

Chicago, April 3.—Wheat prices made an unusually steep advance today and the market showed broad activity as a result of estimates that the crop of winter wheat in the United States this year would be 165,000,000 bushels less than the yield harvested in 1915. Profit taking was heavy during the advance but all the offerings were readily absorbed, with foreigners taking part in the buying.

July delivery showed the greatest upturn, touching 119½¢, a jump of about five cents a bushel above Saturday's finish. The close today was at virtually the topmost figure of the session.

SURPRISE ATTACK DEFEATS BRITISH

Berlin, April 3.—A surprise attack on British troops in Arabia caused them to retreat after they had suffered heavy losses, the war office announces.

Paris, April 3.—A new phase of the battle of Verdun has begun and the belief prevails that the violence of the latest attacks foreshadows another attempt by the Germans to rush the fortress with vast forces. New batteries of large calibre have begun moved up closer to the French front and the German infantry has been rested and reorganized.

Yesterday's fighting on the whole was not unfavorable to the French, it is authoritatively stated. The object of the Germans was to clear the approach to Fort Douaumont and 15,000 men were thrown forward on the mile and a half between Douaumont fort and the village of Vaux. The attacking forces succeeded in crossing a little ravine and in entering the Caillotte wood. Further east they dislodged the French from the last ruined houses of the village of Vaux, but the French positions were so placed as to make it impossible (Continued On Page Eight)

PASTOR ASKS FOR PROBE OF RUMORS

Cincinnati, O., April 3.—At the request of the Rev. Dr. J. Denver Darling, of Columbus, Ohio, who recently resigned as secretary of the Ohio State Sunday School Association, an investigation has been begun by a special committee of ministers appointed by the Rev. Dr. C. E. Schenk, superintendent of the Cincinnati District Methodist Episcopal church, of rumors referring to the resignation of Dr. Darling. Dr. Darling admitted that five letters were sent him apparently by young women. He said he has no idea who were the authors. The letters, it was said, were found torn in the waste paper basket at Dr. Darling's desk.

"I have been waiting ever since these facts became known," said Dr. Schenk, today, "for some one to make charges. During that time I have received a large number of anonymous communications. I have received other inferential information, but there have been no formal charges. The investigation is taken up now at the request of Dr. Darling himself."

PREPARING TO MEET CONDITIONS AFTER WAR

Washington, April 3.—President Wilson and Majority Leader Kitchin of the house agreed on general terms of anti "dumping" and unfair legislation, to meet conditions after the war. The ways and means committee will put them in the revenue bill which Mr. Kitchin told the president would be ready for the house about April 20.

The anti-dumping legislation will be along the general lines of that eliminated from the present tariff law. On foreign goods to be sold in the United States at less than the market price in the country from which they are shipped, the new provision will impose an additional tariff to bring the selling price in the United States up to what it would be if the goods were sold at the market price in the foreign country.

The unfair competition legislation would be along the same lines as the unfair competition sections of the law applying to unfair competition in the United States. The President and Mr. Kitchin discussed protecting the newly grown dye stuff industry in the United States from competition from abroad, but no conclusion was reached. Mr. Kitchin said he expected an additional tariff on dye stuffs would be imposed in the revenue bill but the details had not been worked out.

10 SLAIN; 11 HURT

London, April 3.—Ten persons were killed and eleven injured in Scotland in Sunday night's Zeppelin raid, it was officially announced this afternoon. There were no casualties in England.

The Zeppelins which visited the east coast of Scotland Sunday night hung over the district for 45 minutes during which time twenty bombs were dropped.

A Zeppelin which appeared over a northern county in England yesterday remained about an hour and a half, dropping 20 bombs over a considerable area, largely agricultural.

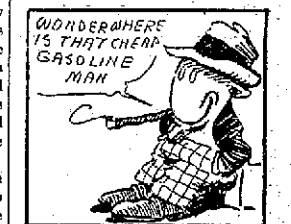

With the exception of the big air raid of January 31, when the casualties were 67 persons and 117 injured, the Zeppelin raids of Friday and Saturday nights caused greater loss of life than any previous aerial attack this year.

The total casualties of the two nights, according to an official report, were 59 persons killed, and 186 wounded.

Berlin, April 3. (Wireless to Sayville).—The official German account of Saturday night's Zeppelin raid over England follows:

"During the night of April 1-2, naval airships renewed the attack on the east coast of England. For a period of one and one half hours explosive and incendiary bombs were thrown on blast furnaces, large iron works and industrial (Continued On Page Eight)

ILLINOIS HAS BIG STRIKE OVER MILK

Chicago, April 3.—Residents of Chicago were warned in a bulletin issued today by Health Commissioner Robertson to conserve their milk supply and to pastureize it as the result of a strike of 10,000 farmers against the distributors.

The farmers have declined to deliver their milk to the distributors who refused to pay them a higher price. Dealers say more than 1,000,000 quarts are being held back daily by the farmers. Bottling plants are picketed to prevent the delivery of milk.

Several persons were injured at Dundee, Illinois, in disorders resulting from the milk strike. Members of the Milk Producers' Association picketed the roads leading to the bottling plants and when "insurgents" endeavored to run the blockade, they were attacked. Deputy sheriffs restored order only after several persons were injured and twenty loads of milk dumped in the streets.

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and itching of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

W. A. Pepper, proprietor of Pepper's One-to-Twenty-five Cent Store, Chillicothe street, is much elated over the success of his new millinery department, which was launched last Saturday. He did a splendid business and believes he has hit upon an innovation that will bring him a large amount of new business. This has been remodeled to meet all the demands of an up-to-date millinery shop, and was a busy place Saturday. Mr. Pepper will not attempt to handle high priced millinery, catering mostly to the moderate class of trade. His new department will not interfere in the least with his other business, which is constantly growing.

Yes! A Sensible Cigarette and you can prove it!

As a matter of fact, there are several sensible cigarettes on the market today. Fatimas aren't the only ones.

You can figure for yourself what a sensible cigarette is:

First—it must please your taste.

Second—it must be cool and comfortable to the throat and tongue.

Third—it must leave you feeling good and snappy even after you have smoked more than usual; no heavy or "heady" feeling—no grinch at yourself for having smoked too much.

On the second and third points Fatimas ring the bell every time.

On point No. 1, the taste—that is strictly up to you. Most men like the taste of Fatimas so well that they outsell any other cigarette costing over 5 cents.

But tastes differ and Fatimas may or may not taste as good to you as to all these thousands of other men.

You can't tell about that, of course, until you try Fatimas. That's the only way to prove how SENSIBLE they are. Try out a package today and prove it yourself.

TWO TESTS FOR ANY CIGARETTE

The taste of the cigarette—according to a leading tobacco personalist—up to the smoker. But there are other qualities that you should look for in the cigarette that you are going to select for your steady smoke. Here are a couple of tests that may help the average smoker to choose more wisely between different brands of cigarettes.

Test number one—How do you feel after smoking all day?

If the tobacco in the cigarette has been a correct proportion of mild grades—and if all of the various grades have been properly mellowed by age—and if they have been so blended as to bring out the best qualities and to neutralize any unpleasant qualities in each of the different types of tobacco, you will be able to smoke a cigarette whenever you feel like it through the day without feeling any effect from it.

Test number two—How do you feel after smoking a cigarette in which the blend of mild tobacco leaves, contained in each cigarette, is so blended as to bring out the best qualities and to neutralize any unpleasant qualities in each of the different types of tobacco, you will be able to smoke a cigarette whenever you feel like it through the day without feeling any effect from it.

Word was received by relative in Sciotoville, Monday, of the death of A. C. Hutchens, who passed away at his home in Cincinnati, Monday morning at 5:20 o'clock. Dr. J. W. Hutchens of Sciotoville, and Dr. Harry Hutchens of Atlanta, Ga., sons of the deceased were at their father's bedside when the final summons came.

Mr. Hutchens was ill for three years and had been in a serious condition for over a year. He was about 62 years of age. Bright's disease and hardening of the arteries caused death.

The deceased is survived by a wife, two sons, Drs. J. W. and Harry and one daughter, Bertha Hutchens who is a student at Oxford College. Mr. Hutchens left the greater part of his life at Williamsburg, O., where he was in the plumbing business. He was a resident of Cincinnati for several years where he was in the livery business. TOWPATH WILL BE OPEN FOR TRAFFIC TOMORROW

The Ohio river stage at 1 p. m. Monday was 46.3 ft. and slowly falling. Water is expected to be off the towpath tonight and the road should be open for general travel not later than early Tuesday morning.

The river is expected to fall more rapidly from now on unless checked by general rains. Sunday's rainfall here was only .17, but it was raining harder Monday morning. The Ohio was again within its banks along the city front proper, but backwater still extended over the lowlands in the vicinity of upper Mill and Front streets, near Waller and Union.

ACHES AND PAINS

Don't neglect a pain anywhere, but find out what causes it and conquer the cause. A pain in the kidney region may put you on your back tomorrow. Don't blame the weather for swollen feet, it may be an advanced warning of Bright's disease. A pain in the stomach may be the first symptom of appendicitis. A creak in a joint may be the forerunner of rheumatism. Chronic headaches more than likely warn you of serious stomach trouble. The best way is to keep in good condition day in and day out by regularly taking GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL Capsules. Sold by reliable druggists. Money refunded if they do not help you. Beware of substitutes. The only pure imported Haarlem Oil Capsules are the GOLD MEDAL.

Families in the flooded district spent Sunday clearing their premises of mud and debris and in drying their basements and ground floor rooms. A few families had moved back into Red Row Sunday and Monday.

Sight-seers were out en masse viewing the big river, there being a steady procession along the river front, and particularly to the new county bridge. Many availed themselves of the opportunity for a ride across the backwaters on board the ferryboat Bonna.

Packet departures announced for Tuesday are as follows: Greenwood up for Pomeroy at 2 p. m.; Greyhound for Huntington at 3 p. m.

The packet Klondike has dropped from its moorings just below the wharfbottom below Madison street, in order to receive power from the Portsmouth Brewery for finishing repairs to her broken shaft. It is hoped to have the boat ready for re-entering the Portsmouth-Rome trade by the middle of the week.

WATCH ACID MOUTHS

Acid in the mouth is dangerous. It promotes decay of teeth. It may lead to pyorrhea and it causes ill health in many ways.

There is a sure, safe way to correct, cleanse and purify acid mouths. Nothing is superior to hyalorite, the remarkably effective antiseptic obtained at any drug store. It at once removes disease germs and stops decay. It cleanses, heals and purifies. It has no disagreeable taste and leaves the mouth clean and free from bad breath odors and removes acid. Get a bottle of hyalorite, for it is economical and can be used for many purposes in the home.

FIRST VISIT IN 30 YEARS

After an absence of 30 years, Henry J. Mace, of Memphis, Tenn., who at one time was mate on the old Bonanza, Keystone State and the City of Clifton, arrived here Friday and is marveling at the vast changes in the city since he last saw it. He is the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. A. Moore, who lives at Moore's Landing, four miles west of the city.

Mr. Mace, when a resident of this city, lived near Seventh and Chillicothe streets and he will be recalled by many of the older residents of the city.

Mr. Mace last October had his left leg broken in four places when an automobile in which he was riding in Memphis had a collision with a big motor truck. He had a close call from being crushed to death beneath the ponderous truck.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Masterole Gives Delicious Comfort
When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little MUSTEROLE on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain—gives quick relief.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Doctors and nurses frankly recommend MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet—Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c tins, and a special large hospital size for $2.50. Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

"What! You saved 4 tons with Radiator heating?"

"Say, John, is that right? And you say that the entire house is ideally warmed all over all the time!"

Comfortable party—"Oh, sure, we're warm as toast. Why, listen! Before I discovered the fault in our old-fashioned heating, our home was a regular 'barn.' Wife had a series of colds every winter, and then the kiddies would sniffle with theirs until our house got to be the doctor's hang-out."

Chilled party—"That's the way it is here now with everybody, from the baby up. Something's got to be done or I'll move. Jane says she can't keep good help on account of lifting and sifting coal and ashes, poking and coaxing fires, blackening, and other ills of old-fashioned heating."

Comfortable party—"Stop worrying, old man, and take a hot tip! Let the dealers put radiator heating in your place. It's done in a jiffy, any time of the year—though this is the best time to buy. Get busy and cheer up the old house; besides, it will go up in value just the minute you put in radiators. Everybody wants them nowadays. Twice as easy to sell or rent because folks have wised-up on the great comfort and coal-savings of radiator heat—the biggest home-making feature in the world."

Chilled party (eagerly)—"Say, John, I'll take your advice, and put in those famous chill-chasers—"

Rubbing your eyes will not cure the constant dragging strain on your vision.

When you can have the services of a competent refractionist who can and will relieve that smarting, burning eye-fatigue, there is little excuse for postponing your visit.

Dr. Allard's Auto Is Stolen, Found Near New Boston

A Ford roadster belonging to Dr. L. D. Allard, which was stolen from in front of the Second Presbyterian church Sunday evening, was found early Monday just off Gallia pike east of Mill brook lake, where it had been abandoned after "developing a flat tire."

The machine was found by Frank White, fire chief of New Boston. It had been run up the road leading around the reservoir hill. Neither the owner's medicine chest nor tools, was disturbed. The police have absolutely no clue to the parties who took the roadster.

Believes 12 Men Are Trying To Kill Him; Adjudged Insane

Leo F. Sullivan, a stranger was found lying on Gallia pike near New Boston Sunday afternoon by Marshall Isaac Wells, apparently unconscious. Mr. Wells took charge of the young man and took him to the jail. He was revived but refused to talk.

Sunday evening about 7 o'clock Wells went to his cell and found the man a raving madman. He was swearing at the top of his voice and when the officer entered the cell to quiet him he was attacked and thrown out.

Sullivan claimed that he had hanged a man recently and that twelve strong men were following him and intended to kill him. He broke up the furniture in his cell and did not quiet down until 4:30 Monday morning.

Marshall Davis brought Sullivan to the county jail Monday and filed an affidavit of lunacy against him. Before the sheriff locked him in a cell Sullivan requested a piece of paper and hurriedly wrote the following message saying that he was going to be killed by those "twelve men" and he wanted his body shipped back home: "I, Leo F. Sullivan, was sent by Mrs. Kane, of Randolph, Mass., to the health resort. Send body to K. C. Vera Cruise Council, Randolph."

Drs. E. O. McCall and W. W. Smith adjudged the man insane at an inquest held Monday noon.

Shows Gratitude

There is a certain amount of appreciation in everyone.

This was forcibly impressed upon Henry L. Cline, superintendent of Greenlawn cemetery Saturday when he received a letter from a man in Cincinnati. This gentleman stated that a man was buried in Greenlawn, who years ago had befriended him and that he wanted his grave kept in good condition. He instructed Mr. Cline to buy three of the best rose bushes he could find and plant them on his friend's grave.

Splendid Writing Talent Is Displayed By Local Girl In Prize Winning Story

Miss Ruth Gene Atlas, bright 12 year old daughter of Henry Atlas of the Atlas company recently sent a story to the Jewish Exponent published in Philadelphia and the story proved to be a prize winner in a contest held for youthful writers. Miss Atlas' story is so clever for one of her years that The Times prints it in full as follows:

"Doesn't she look horrible? Why, if I couldn't have come looking better than that, I would not have come at all."

"Sallie Black is a very nice girl and I don't think you should talk about her," answered Susan Brown.

"Well, anyhow, she shouldn't have come looking like that," put in Ruth Trows, who, not being popular, kept on the good side of Jane Lindow.

The object of conversation, Sallie Black, was a very poor little girl. She was in these girls' classes at school, but was seldom invited to their parties and other amusements.

The three girls were alone in the dressing room at Hortense Flower's home, where a party was being given.

After a while Jane and Ruth left the room. Susan meditated. Jane is trying for the scholarship, or rather the school prize. Sallie is likely to get it. Jane is jealous.

Just then her thoughts were interrupted by some girls coming into the room.

"Oh, Sue," cried Josie Hector, "all the boys and girls are looking for you. Robert Morris is going to sing and they want you to play an accompaniment."

Susan left the room. Her conscience pricked her as she saw Sallie sitting alone. For just one moment she thought of going on. Then she stopped and said, "Come Sallie, Bob Morris is going to sing and you must hear him."

"Thank you, but I believe I'd rather not," came the answer timidly.

"Oh, yes, you must! By the way," catching up Sallie's arm and starting away, "I hear you are trying for the prize and are likely to get it. Is it so?"

"Well, so far I believe I'm on the list, but you know I might lose out."

"Oh, I'm sure you won't."

By this time they had reached the parlor. Everyone greeted Susan, who was a favorite, and the rest of the evening was enjoyable for all.

Susan was right in her thoughts. The next day Miss Watkins announced that the only ones left to

"Why Jane, why don't you start? What's the matter?"

When Jane met Miss Watkins again it was after school had closed for the summer.

Miss Watkins met Jane with a smile and exclaimed:

"Oh, Jane, I was so much disappointed in Sallie's theme! Do you know I'm almost positive you would have won the prize for every one's best Sallie's theme. It certainly is too bad you got ill at the last minute."

RESOLUTIONS

In memoriam of Rev. Addison Haley and daughter.

In obedience to the decree of Almighty God, the Creator of Heaven and earth, that in Adam all must die, Death has again invaded the ranks of Pleasant Green Baptist church and taken from it Rev.

Haley, one who fifty years ago was baptized into the organization of Pleasant Green Baptist church and was a charter member. He was a true and faithful member, his life an example of Christian integrity. Therefore, by his removal the church has lost a wise counselor and a true knight of the cross, the family a kind husband and father.

Miss Rhett Haley, a devout Christian and member of Pleasant Green Baptist church, has also succumbed and brought the pangs of grief to friends and relatives, though she has joined the pilgrims who are domiciled in a mansion not made with hands. We knew her worth in Pleasant Green by a review of her life, she being a faithful member. The whole church laments with the bereaved family.

We know her journey is complete; We believe to God she was true; We believe the bright home of glory. Her enraptured soul will view.

Therefore, be it resolved, That Pleasant Green unite in sympathy with the bereaved family.

Be it further resolved, That we render mutual assistance to the family, as taught in the new testament of the Holy Bible.

Be it further resolved, That these resolutions become a part of our church record, also to tender a copy to the bereaved family and one to the press.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, April 3.—Numerous specialties, including munitions, metals, industrials and equipments were variably higher today, with irregularity in rails.

Prices evinced a higher tendency at today's opening but with the exceptions of the better known specialties no marked changes from last week's final quotations were registered. There were 1 to 2 point gains in American and Baldwin locomotives, Crucible steel, Colorado Fuel and Associated Oil, with new records for south.

Porto Rico sugar which gained 9 1/2 to 21 1/2 and Jewell Tea on its rise of 4 1/2 to 89. Disappointment over latest advices from Mexico was indicated by the backwardness of Mexican Petroleum and American Smelting, both, however, soon recovering.

Crucible, Kennecott Copper, the latter, at the new record of 59, and American Locomotive were the main features of the forenoon, in which the volume of trading steadily diminished. U. S. Steel was in moderate demand, rising fractionally to 85 and industrial alcohol led the issues of its particular class, advancing four to 159 1/2. Varying degrees of strength were shown by Mercantile Marine preferred, Maxwell, Motors, American Cotton Oil, International Paper preferred and International Nickel. Bonds were steady, with continued activity in Anglo-French five's.

Dealings became more diversified later, with heavy trading in United States Steel at a higher level. The closing was strong.

Old Extras Are Sold On April Fool Day

Employees of the Selby Shoe company played a "krool" April Fool joke on some of their fellow employees Saturday at the noon hour.

When the whistle blew for the lunch hour at 11:30 o'clock a beaming boy who was in on the joke stood at the main door with an arm load of Times Noon Pink Extras. He sold them in jig time. Where's the joke? Why the Noon Extras represented a collection of papers saved during the past three or four weeks and the purchasers, who expected to add zest to their lunch by pouring over the news columns of the Noon Extra of Saturday, much to their disappointment found they had been April fooled.

HERRICK MEN TO MEET THIS WEEK

Arthur H. Bannon, chairman of the Scioto County Herrick Voters' League, stated Monday that the date for the organization meeting had not been definitely decided upon but that it would be held sometime this week at his offices.

Monday Mr. Bannon received a communication from Henry R. Gall, secretary of the general organization of Ohio, congratulating him upon accepting the management of the Scioto County campaign. At the meeting, which will be held this week, plans will be made for a general county committee. There will be a general county committee appointed. This committee will consist of one representative from each ward and precinct in the county and city. Then this committee will hold a meeting and elect officers at a later date.

see it—it's a picture that will make over your whole life.

Friday's Paramount needs no comment—just enough to say it's John Barrymore in "Nearly a King." Everybody knows how funny John is and his last picture is a scream from start to finish.

Saturday's picture is another real masterpiece, Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno in "The Price of Folly"—You enjoyed these two clever stars in "The Island of Regeneration" and you will certainly enjoy "The Price of Folly" if you can get into see it next Saturday.

In addition to this wonderful program of headliners Manager Mack intends to have a special musical program every night that in itself will be worth more than the admission price.

Don't Miss This Great "Triangle" Program at the Columbia Tonight

A pretty story of a young girl, who mothered seven bright little children, and her reward, is told in the Fine Arts Triangle story, "Let Katy Do It." Katy Standish is a family drudge on a New England farm. Her father and mother die. She then lives with her married sister. In rapid succession seven children are born to the sister. The parents are killed by a train. Katy teaches school to aid in supporting her little flock, of which she is the foster mother. Dan Standish, who is the uncle of Katy, sends for her and the children. She goes to his mine in Mexico. With Dan is Oliver Putnam, a former sweetheart of Katy. The girl gets angry with him, because he doesn't like the children. While the older people are away on an errand of mercy, Mexicans attack the little home at the mine. One of the children escapes and aid is summoned. Before the cowboys can arrive, however, the children shoot off guns and discharge mines that surround the house, keeping the attackers at bay. Then help arrives. Oliver is pleased at the plucky work of the children. He and Katy are reconciled and make a happy home for the flock in the states.

"The Great Pearl Tangle" is the two-part "Keystone" comedy for this evening, and it is a regular riot of fun, featuring Sam Bernard, one of America's greatest comedians supported by a regular "Keystone" company, including Harry Gribben and Minnie Durfee.

Moving Pictures of the Fearful New York Central Passenger Wreck at Amherst, Ohio, Shown at The Columbia

Manager Tynes announces that he has secured the only pictures of the fearful passenger wreck on the New York Central at Amherst, Ohio.

Remember these are motion pictures, not slides, showing wonderful and impressive scenes of this big triple passenger train wreck, and they will be shown on Wednesday in connection with chapter No. 13 of "The Girl and The Game".

In addition to these two pictures, you will also see a full reel of pictures showing the electrification of the great Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., showing the big, powerful electric motors pulling trains over the Continental Divide and the Cascade mountains. You will also see many beautiful scenes along the route of this great trans-Continental railroad, making the biggest program of intensely interesting railroad pictures ever offered in Portsmouth.

"Neal of the Navy" At The Exhibit Tonight

"White Gods" is the chapter of the thirteenth chapter of "Neal of the Navy." Through the trenchery of Hernandez Annette Hing-ton and her party are shipwrecked close to a cannibal island to which they row in safety. Neal returns to the half submerged vessel and from the wireless room sends out a call for help. Hernandez and his Brute Man-Servant have landed on another part of the island. They enlist the aid of the cannibals who see a God in the Brute man. They capture Annette and Mrs. Hardin and kill the remaining members of the crew. How Neal again proves a deciding factor at a moment when things look blackest for Annette, Mrs. Hardin and the Brute Man-Servant can best be told in the picture. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew feature in the Vitaphone comedy entitled "By Might and His Right." "Snakesville's Champion" is a side splitting Essanay comedy.

Second Street Theatre The former Majestic theatre on Second street will be reopened tomorrow night under a new name, but still under the courteous management of Messrs. Farmer and Holman. The cozy little theatre is completely remodeled and renovated and presents a most pleasing appearance in a new coat of paint and varnish and wall paper. A special feature program will be run tomorrow night, one reel being "The Sinking of the Titanic."

At the Temple

"The Moth and the Star" is the eleventh chapter of the "Stingaree" series. Out of jail and in again in one day is Stingaree's experience. He escapes by changing places with the crank prison reformer who comes to hear the tale of his life. After helping himself to a change of a loathing Stingaree that evening attends a concert at which Ethel his former sweetheart sings, but his audacious daring results in his recapture and the closing scene finds him in the same as the opening one.

"Fish's Spy" is an interesting two part Essanay feature drama which is followed by "Half a Million" a Lubin comedy that carries the punch and ginger all the way through.

At The Strand Tonight the Strand presents that funny eccentric comedian Flivvers, in a Nestor two reel comedy, "The Smoke Eater." If you have laughed at Flivvers in his other characters shown in this theatre you should not fail to see him as a fireman tonight. "Uncle Sam's Children" is the seventh number of "Uncle Sam At Work." "A Child of Circumstances," Rex drama features Ella Hall and Marc Robbins.

At The Arcana

"The High Flyers" is an interesting Victor drama, a two-reel number featuring Harry C. Meyers and Rosemary Theby. This follows the style of George Ade's fables and is amusing throughout. The two leading characters, Miss High Life and Mr. Dude, are well portrayed, also those of Miss Plain and Mr. Honest. The first couple marries and comes to grief because they try to live in a $200 flat on $20 a week; the second couple fares better. The subtitles are full of modern slang and make entertaining reading.

Safe Home Remedy for Skin-Troubles

Eczema, ringworm, and other itching, burning skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need never hesitate to use, even on a baby's tender skin—that is the real treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of resinsol ointment and resinsol soap. This proved so remarkably successful, that thousands of other physicians have prescribed it constantly for over twenty years. Generally resinsol stops itching at once, and heals the eruption quickly and at little cost. Resinol ointment and resinsol soap can be bought at any druggist's.

Resinol Soap is not only unusually cleansing and softening, but its regular use gives to the skin and hair that natural beauty of perfect health which cosmetics can only imitate.

There is a vast army of men and women who really never know what it is to enjoy sound, vibrant health—who would be surprised to suddenly gain that exhilarating vitality that robust health brings.

Literally thousands without any particular sickness live in "general debility," as the doctors call it—have headaches, are tired and indifferent. To all such people we say with unmistakable earnestness—"Take Scott's Emulsion for meals for one month and allow it rare oil-ford to enrich and enliven your blood, quicken your circulation, stimulate nutrition, and aid nature to develop that real red-blooded life that means activity, enjoyment, success."

Scott's Emulsion is not a drug, but a pleasant food- tonic free from alcohol. One bottle may help you.

The Movies

"The Great Divide" at Lyric Tonight—Anna Held Tomorrow

The Lyric this week offers some very exceptional pictures. Manager Mack begins his fifth year in connection with this popular house and by way of showing some appreciation of the good patronage enjoyed he has arranged a program that would be very hard to improve. He has selected six of the best pictures on the market and the program of quality and variety cannot disappoint any lover of good pictures. Look them over and don't miss any of them if you can help it.

Tonight, "The Great Divide" in five parts, featuring House Peters and Ethel Clayton. Produced in the Grand Canyon. Vaughn Moodys' greatest of all American plays made into one of the picture marvels of all time.

Tomorrow, "Anna Held" in "Madame La Presidente," the first appearance of this world famous actress in films and if you raise it you are missing positively one of the best comedy offerings you will ever get a chance to see. Wednesday brings the adorable favorite "Clara Kimball Young" in "The Yellow Passport" a pre-eminent photoplay picturing with startling realism, the grim symbolism of the saffron emblem of shame. A dramatic gem.

In addition to this wonderful program of headliners Manager Mack intends to have a special musical program every night that in itself will be worth more than the admission price.

INDOOR WORKER IS HANDICAPPED

Office Men Often Pay Penalty of Indoor Grind

We can't all be devotees of the great out-of-doors, and so the office men and women too often pay the penalty of the all-day grind at the desk.

There comes in many cases the sluggishness that is bred of physical inactivity and the ailments that mark the indoor man for their own.

To say "I feel good all over" is to speak the name of content, and when this is supplemented by a steady, healthy increase in weight after a long period of suffering, the fortunate man usually feels that he wants to share his good luck with the less fortunate "other fellow."

It is this spirit that prompts so many prominent business men in every community to endorse Tanlae. Tanlae assists nature to throw off depression and in its place to stimulate the system, with the result that energy and vigor return.

That "tired feeling" means a good deal more than is generally realized. It is one of the symptoms of a more serious condition. It is not laziness, it is a physical ailment that needs correction before it takes a firm hold on you. The results of the Tanlae treatment are amazing.

Tanlae tends to make tired out, listless persons sturdy and of real manhood and womanhood like those old-fashioned but most sensible folks—the pioneers.

As a tonic, appetizer and invigorant, nothing ever has been discovered that will compare with Tanlae. It builds new tissues, vitalizes the blood and acts so favorably on ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys and catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes.

Satisfied users of Tanlae have proven to be Tanlae's best advertisers. Men and women, from the highest to the lowest walks of life, everywhere are testifying daily to the relief Tanlae has brought them. No other remedy has won such endorsements, that can only come from superlative merits.

Tanlae is being especially introduced in Portsmouth at the Fisher & Streich pharmacy where the Tanlae Man is daily explaining its merits and the results that may be expected from its use.

WESLEY HALL WILL CANVASS CITY TO RAISE $5,000 BUILDING FUND

Sometime this week Rev. J. E. Dibert, of the Wesley Hall Mission, will start an active campaign to raise $5,000 which will be used to repair the Mission, 512 Second street, which was recently purchased by the board of directors.

Wesley Hall, which is one of the most active charitable organizations in the city, was established about three years ago in the same building which was purchased. Since that time thousands of worthy cases have been cared for and hundreds of men and women have been given a new start in life.

Here on wintry nights when the snow and the sleet drive hungry unfortunate men to shelter Rev. J. E. Dibert carried on his work. Before these apparent derelicts he preached the gospel and pleaded with the men to become industrious citizens. Those who were following a trade were assisted in finding employment. Thus the Wesley Hall Mission became a haven for the unfortunate.

The business of caring for the charitable cases has grown and expanded until it became necessary to make additional to the quarters and improvements to the property, so Rev. Dibert plans to remodel the building. The lower floor of the structure is now used as a church and a library. The second floor is a three cent lunch room.

The third floor is used for clothing storage, for the offices of the free employment bureau and the beds, and the wood industry.

Rev. Dibert expects to raise the entire amount within a short time for he believes that the citizens of Portsmouth are interested in his work. Already several business men have purchased a large supply of tickets which entitles the holder to a bed for a night. These are then given to the unfortunate who apply for charity.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

At Manly Church

Two strong and inspiring sermons were preached at Manly church Sunday. Every sermon that has been preached during the past two weeks, by Rev. Gilliland, and has been a ringing call to better living, greater service. He has upheld a high standard of Christian life and challenged men and women to measure their lives by God's rule, as found in His word, and model them after the perfect pattern, Jesus Christ. Rev. Gilliland is a powerful and earnest preacher and all who have been present have been helped and inspired by the messages he has brought.

Miss Ladora White was present during the morning service and assisted in the music with her violin. The beautiful accompaniment was enjoyed by all.

1 John 4:3, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God, because many false prophets are gone out into the world."

"The preaching of the cross of Christ is not the kind of doctrine that we like to hear; we like to believe that there's an easier way. If you don't want to hear about bearing the cross—about self-denial and sacrifice, you can find places where an easier way is preached. But Christ says: 'Let no man deceive you, for there are many false prophets,' and John bids us try the spirits and see whether they are from God or whether they are false. There are so many people trying to find an easy way to heaven, that men and women have grown rich in promoting doctrines of that kind, as examples look at Pastor Russell, Mrs. Eddy, and Alexander Dowie. There is only one way to heaven and that is no primrose path either. If we're honest, we'll hear the truth, and surrender ourselves to God and sacrifice ourselves. It is the cross that makes for nobility of character—that lifts us up from the earth and brings us into close communion with God. It is the cross—the full surrender, that brings the glory of heaven into a man's soul."

"How are we to prove the spirits? First, by asking God to send His Spirit to help us. 'When He, the Spirit of Truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth.' He will send us to the Word of God. No man can honestly say he's doing his best unless he's studying his Bible and trying to live according to its teaching. It is the only guide to heaven. Another way of proving the spirits is by our conscience. If you're honest with God and follow conscience, guided by the Holy Spirit you'll not go very far astray. Then another way is to examine the fruits of those who believe in the high standard and compare them with those who do not."

"Some people say that it doesn't matter what we believe, so that we are sincere in it. That is all bosh. That isn't honesty. People who think that, haven't come into touch with Jesus Christ. Saul of Tarsus was sincere in persecuting the Christians, but that didn't make it right. The thing to do is to find out the truth and then act accordingly."

The subject of the evening sermon was "The Last Prayer Meeting." The texts, or rather the scripture lesson on which the sermon was founded, was Rom. 2:11-13, Rev. 6:12-17 and Rev. 20:11-15.

The message was a vivid picture of the great Day of Judgment.

"It's hard to get some folks out to prayer meeting, but we'll all be at that prayer meeting, from the first man that ever lived down to the last. Many terrible scenes have taken place in earthquakes and volcanic eruptions, but they were purely local affairs. There was some chance perhaps, for escape, but then there will be none. Added to all this will be the terror of the Lord, the realization that all will be judged by a just God. Then the folks that don't like to go to prayer meeting now will all be praying and they'll not be ashamed of it either. They'll be crying aloud for the rocks and mountains to hide them from the face of God. They will be conscious of their sin. There will be no more opportunity to repent then. On that day everything will be revealed, even the secret thoughts and intents of our hearts. Mercy's day is now. That will be a Day of Justice when all will receive their just rewards. It will be too late to plead for mercy on that day."

"We have only one opportunity for repentance. Now is the time to accept Christ and have our sins pardoned. Then, we'll not need to fear the Judgment. Today is the day of salvation. If we want to hear His 'Well done' on that day, we must serve Him faithfully now. Will you not accept His great salvation now?"

Services every night this week except Saturday, at 7:15. Personal Workers' prayer meeting at 7:00. On one evening Rev. Gilliland will sing a gospel song in Spanish. There will also be a special message by some one else on one evening. The subject for this evening is "Confession." Everybody welcome at Manly.

Big Time At Church of Christ
The Church of Christ worshiping at Offshore and Eleventh Sts., enjoyed a feast of three good services Sunday morning, afternoon and evening.

There were three additions at the morning service and five baptisms in the afternoon. Evangelist Maple spoke in the morning on the theme of Jesus and his dealing with men, using the Apostle Peter as a special illustration of Christ, in his endeavor to teach them the right way.

It was the kind of a sermon that showed the humanity as well as the divinity of Jesus, as the Savior of weak human beings.

In view of the baptismal services of the afternoon Evangelist Maple gave a talk and bible reading on the subject of baptism.

The evangelist spoke at the evening services on the subject of "You Must Hate to be a Disciple" using Luke 14:26 reading as follows:

"If any man cometh unto me and hateth not his own father and mother and wife and children and brethren and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. From this he gave the terms of discipleship, as the supreme love for Jesus, bearing our own cross, counting the cost and accepting Him as our only Savior.

Taking it all in all, the services were the best yet held. Prof. Garriell led the singing in his usual pleasing way. The meetings continue with increasing interest. The subject for this evening is "The Sweetest Old Love Letter Ever Written." The evangelist states that he will read this letter to the audience. Services beginning at 7:30. Everyone invited.

Relative to a case of local interest The Ohio State Journal of Columbus, Sunday, said:

"Was Herbert Patton, aged 41, a hide buyer of Ashland, who died at Protestant hospital in February, the murderer of N. A. Carter of Grand View whose body was found at the rear of a resort at 153 West Maple street on the morning of Aug. 18, 1912?"

"Patton's widow, who, with her three children, lives at Ashland, declares her husband, during his fatal illness, confessed to her that he had killed a man in a Columbus resort, 'during state fair week in 1908.' As there were no murders here in that week and as the circumstances of Carter's mysterious killing bore likeness to the confession, Mrs. Patton says her husband made to her, the police are inclined to believe that if the Ashland man was mixed up with a murder here, it was that of Carter."

Growsome Package
"Shortly before Patton was brought to Columbus for an operation for brain tumor, which was performed by Dr. B. A. Dowd, Mrs. Patton, it is said, took a package to the office of her family physician, Dr. C. B. Meuser, of Ashland, which she asked him to keep until she called for it. The story is that after her husband died, Mrs. Patton told Dr. Meuser she had come to explain what was in the package. It was opened and a dagger was revealed."

"Then Mrs. Patton, it is said, told Dr. Meuser of her husband's confession. Patton had not told his wife of the circumstances of the crime, nor had he revealed the name of his victim."

"The dagger, which he said had been used in the crime, was turned over to Chief of Police Smith, of Ashland, who brought it to Columbus."

"Carter's murder proved a mystery to the police, who arrested several persons for the crime, among them Joseph Green, a soldier at Columbus barracks, who was acquitted."

"In Green's trial it developed that one man who was present when the crime was committed had made his getaway, and this had much to do with Carter's execution, it is believed."

"If Patton had a hand in a murder here, the police believe it was in the 1912 crime and that he was the stranger who never was apprehended."

"Mrs. Carter and children are living in Ironton."

Wallace's Homer Wins Game

By clotting out a home run in the last inning of Saturday's close game between the East End and Athletics, Wallace won the game for the East End after one of the prettiest games witnessed this season.

After the first round, Moore pitched air tight ball for the East End aggregation. Walking a man in this inning, and allowing E. Smith to put one in the river for a homer, 2 runs were scored by the Athletics. Then it was this husky young pitcher settled down and fanned the next three batters. He was on the slab for 4 innings, and in that length of time mowed down 7 batters by strike-outs. Monk was given a turn in the box in the 5th, and being wild, he allowed his opponents to score 3 runs. With the score tied in the last inning, Wallace knocked a homer which won for the East End. Surprise Attack

The total result of the very formidable effort they had put forward was a gain for the Germans of about 500 yards of terrain, more than offset, it is affirmed, by the very heavy losses they had endured. On the west of the river the Germans attacked the Avonport block-house in a no less determined manner, but met with complete failure, the observers declare.

FOUGHT ALL NIGHT

Paris, April 3.—Fighting continued all night in the Verdun region east of the Meuse, between Douaumont and Vaux. The issue turned generally, the war office announcement of this afternoon says, in favor of the French who gained ground in the northern part of Callette wood which was occupied by the Germans yesterday.

TO REMAIN NEUTRAL

The Hague, April 3.—The Associated Press is again authoritatively informed that all apprehensions regarding any impending embroilment of Holland with any foreign power are wholly unfounded, but a considerable section of the public persists in believing that the expected coming offensive by the Allies supposedly planned at the Paris conference, holds the possibility of danger to Holland's neutrality. Public anxiety has been allayed, but has not wholly disappeared, in the absence of a statement from the government to clear up the situation. An alarming bulletin issued Friday was not issued at the instance of the government.

PROMISED PROMPT REPLY

Washington, April 3.—American Ambassador Gerard at Berlin cabled today that the German government had promised him a prompt reply to his inquiry regarding destruction of the Sussex and other vessels on which Americans were endangered.

ZEPPELIN

(Continued From Page One) establishments on the south bank of the Tees and on the port establishments of Middlesbrough and Sunderland. Large explosions, fire and demolitions were caused and the successful effects of the attack were clearly noticeable.

"Notwithstanding heavy shelling of our airships, they suffered neither losses nor damage."

London, April 3.—The official communication, on Sunday night's air raid says:

"It appears that altogether six Zeppelins took part in the raids of last night. Three raided south-eastern counties of Scotland, one on the northeast coast of England and the remaining two eastern counties of England."

"The vessels which raided Scotland crossed the coast at 9 p. m., 9.45 p. m. and 10.15 p. m. respectively, and cruised over southeastern counties of Scotland until about 1.10 a. m. Their course gave no indication of any special locality for attack, but thirty-six explosive and 17 incendiary bombs were dropped on various places, damaging hotels and dwelling houses. Following are the casualties which are reported at present in Scotland:

"Killed, 7 men, no women, 3 children. Total, 10.
Injured 5 men, 2 women and 4 children. Total, 11."

"One vessel visited the northeast coast and dropped 22 explosive and 15 incendiary bombs. The two remaining ships crossed the English coast about 10.15 p. m. and cruised over eastern counties until about 1 a. m. They were both engaged at various times by Anti-Aircraft artillery and appear to have been prevented by this means from selecting any definite locality as their definite objective."

Berlin, April 3.—(Wireless to Sayville)—Edinburgh and Leith, dock establishments on the Firth of Forth, and important ship building works on the Tyne, were attacked in last night's Zeppelin raid over England and Scotland, the admiralty announced today. There were numerous fires and violent explosions. A battery near New Castle was silenced. All the Zeppelins returned safely.

FIGHTING IN MEXICO

The stockade to be erected here to confine the prisoners captured at Guerrero will be of barbed wire hanging to which will be hundreds of tin cans partly filled with pebbles. Guards to be placed at intervals, along the fence, would be notified of any attempted escape by the rattle of the pebbles in the cans.

San Antonio, Texas, April 3.—The detachment of Villa's forces defeated at Guerrero by American troops Wednesday was located yesterday near Bachinera, northeast of Guerrero, according to General Pershing, who reported today to General Funston.

The remainder of the dispersed forces he said, was scattered through the region northeast of Guerrero and American troops are continuing their pursuit. He has not located Villa, himself, an added that his intelligence department had been given much misleading information and that securing reliable guides was becoming difficult.

Laredo, Tex., April 3.—Military authorities at Nuevo Laredo, opposite here, declared today the reported defection of Colonel Cano's forces in Chihuahua was untrue. They said the Chihuahuas forces were loyal and were "working indefatigably for the apprehension of Villa."

Washington, April 3.—Latest reports from commanders of war ships in Mexican waters say that no trace of Felix Diaz, reported to be in Mexico at the head of a new revolution, has been found.

The protocol with the Carranza government, designed to cover all questions relating to the hunt for Villa, is expected to be concluded during the week.

Washington, April 3.—A fight between one of the smaller groups of Villa and Carranza forces, the latter under Colonel Cano on Mar. 29, was reported to the war department this morning by General Funston. Emanuel Boco, Villa leader, was killed.

CHAMBERLAIN FORCES ARE DEFEATED

Washington, D. C., April 3.—Senator Cummins' amendment to the senate army bill to create a national guard section of five state officers in the general staff, was adopted by the senate today by a vote of 35 to 30.

The vote was a defeat for Senator Chamberlain and the military committee which had rejected the proposal on the ground that it would be unsafe to place national guard officers in such positions of high trust.

Detroit, Mich., April 3.—Michigan's presidential primary law was given its initial trial today. Electors went to the polls to register their preference for candidates who are expected to figure in the national conventions this summer.

MR. BANNON SEES GERMAN WAR PRIZE WHILE AT NEWPORT NEWS

While at Newport News Saturday Attorney Henry T. Bannon, who spent last week at Old Point Comfort, where he was accompanied by Mrs. Bannon, saw the steamer Appam, which is being claimed as a prize by the German government. The Appam, it will be recalled, was caught by a German raider while near the Canary Islands.

Mr. Bannon says that Lieutenant Berg is still in charge of the Appam, which is quite an attraction to visitors to Old Point Comfort, Norfolk and Newport News. "I had the pleasure of talking to the attorney who is representing the Imperial government of Germany in this matter and he insists that the Appam, which was privately owned in England, is a war prize and therefore belongs to Germany. I was told that when the Appam reached Newport News she had a perishable cargo valued at $500,000 and this cargo will be auctioned off to the highest bidders at Newport News on April 12," Mr. Bannon stated Monday.

"I saw all kinds of boats flying the English flag in the Norfolk harbor and everything from scrap iron to big trucks and automobiles are being shipped to the allies on these boats. Norfolk right now is unquestionably one of the busiest cities in America."

"The Norfolk and Western is building a $2,000,000 ware house at Lambert's Point, the contract having recently been awarded to Pettyjohn & company."

The suffragists insist they are not afraid, and will continue to occupy the house.

Holy Redeemer Is Thankful For Gift

The pastor of Holy Redeemer church yesterday at the masses read a portion of the will in which Mrs. Mary E. Mulligan, deceased, most generously remembered her long beloved parish by bequeathing to them a fund on the West Side for the benefit of the new school. This property is valued between seven and eight thousand dollars. He said: "The new school thus becomes a holy shrine in which the good name and deed of this venerable Christian woman shall be treasured as a precious heirloom."

It is needless to say that this great act of charity found an immediate responsive echo of gratitude and appreciation in the hearts of pastor and every member old and young, and that the whole parish will unite in one act of pious and prayerful memory to hold their gracious benefactress in blessed benediction.

This generous donation to the new school no doubt will prove a God-send to the new work and cause other generous members of Holy Redeemer church to emulate this magnificent charity. The new school fund is now nearing the ten thousand amount on hand.

The Lenten devotions on Sunday afternoon and Friday evenings are largely attended. The commemoration of the Passion and death of the Savior which in detail presents fourteen principal phases of Christ's sufferings is not only popular among Catholics, but also appeals with touching effect to men and women of every creed.

MOST PERFECT WOMAN IN WORLD "IN HER MIND," DECLARED INSANE

With an emphatic shake of her head, Mrs. Ellen Rosenberg, the Newark missionary, who has been causing the police department considerable trouble in the past few days, proclaimed herself to be the most perfect woman in the United States and offered to prove it by Dr. Anderson of Newark, Monday at a lunacy inquest. She was adjudged insane by Drs. E. O. McCall and W. W. Smith.

Mrs. Rosenberg, who is a tall, angular woman with sharp face and black beady eyes, claimed that some prominent business men came to her while she was working in Zanesville about two months ago and asked her to come to Portsmouth to do some work, saying that this city was one of the world's "drunken cities in the world." When asked for the names of these prominent business men she said that she had promised not to reveal their identity and if she did there "would be a great fit" between them.

A week ago Sunday Mrs. Rosenberg entered the Second Presbyterian church while the services were being held and demanded the collection in payment for her work. She then denounced the pastor of the church. She was arrested and an affidavit charging lunacy was filed against her last Friday. On being locked up in the county jail she refused to eat until one of the visitors whom Sheriff Pete Smith was showing through the jail entered her cell with a baby.

Mrs. Rosenberg called the sheriff and said that she would eat as the Lord had sent the baby to tell her that she should do so.

It is useless, dangerous and unnecessary to be tortured with the digging, twisting pains of backache or to suffer disagreeable kidney and bladder disorders if a safe, simple and harmless kidney regulator like Solvax can so promptly and surely relieve such troubles as many users say it does.

People who suffer back weakness, rheumatic pains, puffy swellings under eyes or in ankles and feet or are bothered with urinary disorders ought to try taking a little Solvax for a few days, and note results.

Solvax usually begins to work in a few hours to regulate the kidneys so they can drive out the excess uric acid and poisonous impurities that are clogging and stopping their free and healthy action. A difference can often be noticed in as little as twenty-four hours. Wurster Bros. and other leading druggists who sell Solvax, agree to return its full purchase price if in any case it does not give entire satisfaction.

Boy's Foot Broken

Ralph Donley, an 11-year-old son of Barney Donley, a contracting carpenter, of No. 1418 Waller street, sustained a compound fracture of his left foot, while roller skating Sunday.

The boy had been skating on the Offner street sidewalk in front of Greenlawn cemetery, and in jumping from curb to curb lost his balance and fell. Two boy companions were so frightened that they ran away, leaving him to his own fate. Some man in an automobile picked up the injured lad and removed him to his home, where the family physician found that both bones just above the ankle were broken. Ralph is a pupil at the Lincoln street school.

THE TRUTH ABOUT RHEUMATISM

Doctors have more kinds of theories about Rheumatism and its causes than there are days in a month.

Some doctors make the claim that what you call Rheumatism is something entirely different; that it is a germ disease.

But you, who are bent and sore and stiff and doubled up with pain, and can't sleep or enjoy life—you know that Rheumatism is a very real thing to you.

You need, most of all, the treatment that has helped, and perhaps cured, more people of Rheumatism than any other—the one that goes to the seat of the trouble; that loosens up the stiff joints, eases the pain and eradicates the effete, poisonous matter which clogs up your whole system.

This treatment is DUBL-R—remember the name—the double Rheumatism medicine that is recommended and sold at Fisher & Streich Pharmacy and nowhere else in Portsmouth.

“FAGGED-OUT” WOMEN

Overworked, run down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Carter's experience. She says: "I am the mother of six children and I got so weak and run-down that I couldn't eat anything and it seemed almost impossible for me to get around and do my work. I tried different doctors' remedies without benefit. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and received so much benefit from the first bottle that I continued to take it, and it has built up my strength and made me strong and well. I consider Vinol the best medicine I have ever taken, and advise all weak, run-down women to try it." Mrs. Bessie Carter, State Road, N. C.

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in Portsmouth could only realize how our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, supplies the vital elements necessary to build up blood and strength, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand. Frank Amann, Druggist, Portsmouth, O.

GIRL FALLS INTO RIVER

Miss Norma Multer, who resides on Seventh street, fell in the Ohio river while returning Sunday afternoon from a sight seeing trip to the Kentucky hills.

When she stepped on a board leading from the ferry-boat on this side of the river she made a mis-step and she fell in soft mud near the shore. When she stepped back on the board she lost her balance and fell in the Ohio river. Miss Multer was pulled out of the murky Ohio by Norman Duwell and Howard Shoemaker and she felt none the worse for her experience. She was taken to the home of friends on Third street, where she dried her clothes.

Cropper & Jordan believe that 1916 is going to be the banner year in real estate so far as Portsmouth and vicinity are concerned. They have a large number of farms, suburban and city property for sale and their fair business methods will secure for them their share of business. They have secured the services of John Bahner, one of the best posted realty men in the city, and one who will add much to the hustling qualities of the firm.

The Value Of Baker

Various opinions have been expressed as to Baker's ability to return with a 300 grand in his batting eye.

But why should one off-season affect his walloping orb? There are at least two eminent precedents to cover the Baker case. In 1905 Jimmy Callahan quit the White Sox. He quit with a batting average of .272. For the next five years he paddled around with a semi-pro club.

Then in 1911 he rejoined his old ma-

CLAIM MULES IN C. & O. CAMPS ARE MISTREATED

Sciotoville, O., April 3, 1916. Ed. of The Times—I would like to call the public's attention to a matter that ought to be looked after, and that is this, the way they are beating and abusing poor old mules in the construction camps on the C. & O. railroad. I saw a negro whip his team in Sciotoville the other day and it was something awful. These poor old mules are working seven days out of the week, hardly able to lift one foot above the other. I thought at the time how many Union soldiers gave their lives to take the lash from their backs, then see what little mercy they will show when they are master.

Grange Members Held Meeting Saturday Night, To Hold Debate

Closely to 100 members of the Grange enjoyed one of the best social meetings ever held by the organization Saturday evening. The feature number of the evening was an hour's talk by Addison Taylor, grocer of Sciotoville, who gave a very interesting account of his two trips to the Mammoth Caves of Kentucky. On his first visit to the Caves Mr. Taylor did not get to make a complete tour of them but on his second visit he made his inspection complete. The talk proved to be one of the most interesting ever heard at a Grange meeting.

The application of Frank Born of Lick Run was received and favorably balloted upon. At the close of the business and talk by Mr. Taylor all sat down to a big supper prepared by the ladies of the Grange. The menu consisted of cheese sandwiches, ham sandwiches, egg sandwiches, cake, ice cream and coffee. The banquet committee composed of Mrs. John Dins, Mrs. A. B. Preston and Mrs. Fred Shela and they took care of their part of the evening's program in a splendid manner.

The next meeting to be held in two weeks will be a literary meeting, Lecturer Prof. James Turner being in charge of the program. The feature will be a debate on "Resolved, That Ten Acres of Corn are More Profitable Than Ten Acres of Wheat." The affirmative debaters will be George Smith and Jacob Gerlach while the negative side will be taken care of by George Hock and Fred Bihl. At the roll call, every member will give an Easter quotation.

The Importance of Skin Care In the Springtime

Infectious skin diseases are irritating, unpleasant, unsightly and dangerous. There never was a greater mistake made than trying to cure such disorders with pastes, lotions, or creams, rubbed on the outside. You can't cure skin diseases that way, because they are the direct result of infected blood, and you can't rub or soak poisons out of the blood.

The annoyances of skin troubles are worse in spring than any other time. The perspiration that starts with the first warm days intensifies the smarting, burning sensation, and makes that trouble almost unbearable. There is only one way to relieve them, and that is through the blood, which must be thoroughly cleansed and purified. There is only one remedy that you can rely upon to do this, and that is

S. S. S., the surest and best blood cleanser known. S. S. S. acts with sure effect directly upon the blood—taken internally, it goes right into the blood vessels, drives out every bit of poison of whatever nature, kills the germs that starve and impoverish the blood, restores the skin to its proper condition and gives you healthy bone and tissue building blood. Even the worst cases, such as eczema and blood poisons, yield promptly to this efficient vegetable remedy. It doesn't matter how long you have had skin trouble, or if it has developed into chronic sores that you have given up all hope of cure. Take S. S. S. when all else fails. It brings relief. Christian Endeavor meeting Tuesday night at Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larcom's, 1517 Twelfth street.

The Rev. L. J. Hopper's text for Sunday evening was taken from Mark 1:40-43. Following are extracts from his sermon.

"In the first place I want you to think about the appeal the leper made to the Lord Jesus Christ. He came, humbly, got down on his knees and besought the Lord. He offered a petition; he prayed; he got in earnest; and when a man gets in earnest about his soul it will not be long until he finds Christ. I believe that if everyone would come to the Lord in the same earnest, beseeching, believing way, there would not be any more unsaved people very long. Then note the response of Jesus to the leper. First He had compassion; then he put his hands on him; and then he said, "I am willing, be thou clean." I wish I could describe that leper's feelings when he realized that he was clean once more. As the result of this man's cleansing he could go home and commingle with his wife and children, glorifying the Lord, and also he could go out and commingle with his fellowmen. It is just as happy a result when the Lord saves a man from sin. After Christ had healed the leper he gave him some other instructions. He told him to go to the temple before the high priest and give in his testimony. To this manner he went through the ceremony that gave him the right to re-enter society.

"Men's Day" was a magnificent success Sunday at the Church of the Cordial Welcome." In fact it was even a greater success than "Women's Day" last Sunday, the men outnumbering the women by a fair margin, something unusual in church attendance in this city. The Men's Bible class numbered 147, while 101 were present in the Loyal Sons' class at the Sunday school services. In the evening Rev. Oakley delivered a sermon to the men that those who heard it will not soon forget. He gave every one of his hearers something to think about for days to come. He has implicit faith in men—believing they will not fall short when they see their duty. He stated that many people believe that religion is all right for women and children, but that men were not in need of that peace of mind that follows the acceptance of the teachings of the Christ. Rev. Oakley's efforts at both morning and evening services were masterful, while his logic was clear and lucid and he left no one in doubt as to his position. Next Sunday will be known as Young People's Day, and the following Sunday will be known as "Decision Day," preparatory to the eight day revival to be held under the leadership of Rev. Oakley.

The official board of the church will meet in monthly session tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Every member should be present without fail.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. Subject: "Definite Things I Can Do To Help Our Revival." Rev. Oakley, leader. Two minute talks will feature this service. Come prepared to take part.

The Loyal Men's Class will meet Friday evening at the church. Time 7:30. Come, for the meeting will be helpful in every way.

Section Five will have their social meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. I. Cheyne, 2115 Seventeenth street. Visitors cordially invited.

Section Three of the Woman's Union will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. John Williams, 1208 Chillicothe street. All members bring thimbles, for there will be plenty of sewing to do.

The Loyal Bereans will hold their monthly class meeting at the home of Mrs. Alice Gore, 1148 Third street, Thursday evening. If you are a member of this class let nothing keep you away from this meeting. Refreshments and a general good time promised all who attend.

The Loyal Women, Class No. 3, will hold an all day's meeting at the church Wednesday. Dinner and supper will be served. Come and bring your thimbles.

Section One will meet Thursday afternoon, April 6, at the home of Mrs. C. D. Millison, 347 Front street. Let every member please be present. Visitors welcome.

"LANDSLIDES" BECOMING A SERIOUS PROBLEM

The landlides in Scioto county have become so serious that H. D. Brunning, of the state highway department, who was here a few days ago will have H. M. Sharp, chief engineer of construction of the same department, come down to make an inspection. Mr. Brunning will return Wednesday morning to go over the preliminary plans and specifications for the additional road improvements which will be installed this spring.

Several portions of the new brick and concrete road along the Scioto Trail are threatened with destruction unless repairs are made at once. Near Camp Linberger, one of the drains became clogged with debris and overflowed, washing a portion of the guard rail along the culvert away and undermining a part of the ditch.

At several other points where the paving was laid upon new-filled earth, the bank has washed out, causing the pike to sink.

The slide at the Two Mile Hill on Scioto Trail is causing considerable trouble. It has destroyed about one-fourth of the pike at this point and a new avalanche of earth has been dislodged near the top of the hill. In speaking of this slide, John J. Harper, county engineer, said Monday that the engineers would have a very difficult problem to solve here. Practically the entire side of the hill is slipping and crowding the brick roadway. This slipping movement is destroying the road and piling a large amount of clay and rock into the ditch, causing the brick to sink.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

The Bible school attendance went over the mark of one week ago by four, the total Sunday being 6210, while that of one week ago was 6206.

Second Presbyterian with 631 present, moved back into the third position Sunday. Five churches had over 500 present. Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

See your dentist twice yearly. Use Senreco tooth paste.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth thoroughly. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today or send 4c in stamp or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company, 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Chief George Koerner, of the fire department, has issued a call requesting all citizens of Portsmouth to co-operate with him in both eliminating fires and aiding the departments in making their runs. He says that much time is consumed in making runs to fires by the drivers being compelled to slow down for street crossings. "If the citizens would flag the cross streets for us when they see the department making a run it would materially aid us and perhaps avoid an accident," asserted the chief.

"Then too, I would urge every one to clean up the trash and rubbish that has collected over the winter. The annual reports of the fire marshal show that every year there are more than one thousand fires with a loss exceeding a million dollars from trash and rubbish being set afire. This is about one seventh of the total fire loss. If all of the trash was cremated when it is created the insurance rate would fall about one seventh, for the insurance rate is fixed to correspond to the burning rate necessarily. I would urge the citizens to eliminate the causes of fire rather than wait for the department to extinguish it, when the fire starts."

DELLA'S LOVER FACES CHARGE OF ADULTERY

The Ironton Irontonian Sunday morning said:

"Lou D. Smith was arrested Saturday by Patrolman Deering on a charge of living in adultery with Della Evans, the young Portsmouth girl. He pleaded not guilty before Mayor Hannan and was released on bond. He will have his hearing Tuesday in police court."

"It is understood that another charge has been prepared against the Evans girl and that it will be served probably today. She will have her hearing on a disorderly conduct charge Tuesday afternoon. This was the charge on which she was arrested with Smith last week."

"The following answer and cross petition in regard to the divorce petition brought by his wife was filed Saturday in the common pleas court by Lou D. Smith, through his attorneys, J. O. Yates and Andrews and Irish: "The defendant denies that plaintiff is possessed of the house, hold goods, in the home of said plaintiff and defendant, as alleged in the petition, or of one 'Hapmobile' automobile, or all the stock, merchandise, fixtures, goods, book accounts, bank accounts, delivery equipment, or any other matters and things connected with the business being conducted at Nos. 213-220 North Second street, in the City of Ironton, O., as alleged in the petition."

"Defendant denies that on or about the 23rd day of March, 1916, he was guilty of extreme cruelty toward plaintiff by striking her; denies that he at any other time was guilty of extreme cruelty by striking plaintiff, and denies that plaintiff is in continual fear of great bodily harm at the hands of this defendant, or that plaintiff has any cause for same."

This defendant admits that he was at the time of bringing this suit, and for some time prior thereto, has been manager of said business, but denies that he will dispose of, or encumber said property, so as to prejudice the rights of plaintiff or defendant."

assembled of herself.

Dear Dolly—Please will you answer these few lines. I live down town and go to a near-by church and that church is absolutely closed from one Sunday to another, of which I think closing it up without airing is poison to the people who go there on Sunday and sit there. Don't you think a church ought to be well aired every day.

L. L. B.
The church is evidently cleaned and aired during the week but you don't happen to see it done. Every church in town has a janitor whose duty is to see that the building is kept in a clean sanitary condition.

Dear Dolly—Here is a good furniture polish: Two parts of linseed oil and one part turpentine. Apply with a soft brush or cloth, wipe with fresh cloth and polish.

A READER.
Dear Dolly—We are two girl friends, 15 and 16 years old. Is it proper for us to allow boys to come to our home for entertainment at night when we have to go home by ourselves at 10 o'clock.

CHUMS.
You should not go to an entertainment at night unless you are accompanied by an older person.

Dear Dolly—Do you believe the words of a so-called fortune teller in regard to your future? Do you believe in a psychologist or phrenologist?

SARA.
No, I don't believe in any kind of fortune telling. It's lots of fun, however, to have it told, provided one is not inclined to take it seriously. Be sensible—does it look reasonable that the lines of the hand, or the bumps of the head are determining factors of your future?

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please suggest several names for a Sunday School class of 12 girls, between the ages of 13 and 15? Can you tell us of some ways in

SOCIETY

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Selby, on Gallia avenue, was the scene of a delightful dinner Saturday evening, celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mr. Selby, which came the first of April. The table was beautifully appointed in yellow, with a large cluster of jonquils forming the centerpiece, and the crystal candlesticks holding yellow candles and shades, were adorned with yellow ribbons. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George D. Selby, their four sons, Messrs. Pearl E., Mark W., Homer C. and Roger A. Selby, Mr. B. H. Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rardin, Messrs. J. O. Selby and S. V. Selby, Mrs. J. P. Caskey, of Peebles, Mr. and Mrs. Noah J. Dever, Mr. G. H. Heinisch, two of the invited guests, Mr. J. P. Caskey and Dr. J. S. Rardin, were unable to be present. Each of the guests was presented with a yellow crepe paper foil's cap, adorned with small bells, which were worn during the serving of the menu.

The four unfortunates, Mr. Selby, Mrs. Caskey, Mrs. Dever and Mr. Heinisch, whose birthdays occur on April first, were subjected to many surprises, and some disappointments. The two ladies, Mrs. Caskey and Mrs. Dever, looked disappointed when two large bouquets, purporting to be from the florist, were opened and proved to be a bunch of rhubarb for one and a bunch of celery for the other. Mr. Selby had quite a task opening a nest of sealed boxes until finally he arrived at a small one containing an elegant diamond scarf-pin, a gift from his four sons.

In the meantime an elaborate four-course dinner was served by the three daughters-in-law, Mesdames P. E. Selby, Mark W. Selby and Homer C. Selby. When the pretty birthday cake was brought in Mr. Selby had a time trying to cut it, as it proved to be an April fool cake, a cake pan elaborately frosted with plaster-paris, with the name and date in red cinnamon drops. He finally had to give up the tedious job. At eight o'clock the entire party went to the Lyric, where the April first people enjoyed the pictures through the kindness of The Times, who supplied them with special tickets.

The April meeting of the Joseph Spencer Chapter D. A. R. will be held at the home of Mrs. Cornelia B. Treuhart, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Plans will be perfected for special delegates to attend the annual meeting in Washington, D. C., April 17 to 22.

The Whatsoever Guild of All Saints' church will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carl Doerr, 636 Third street.

Troy People Report Results Following Tests of Vap-O-Rub

When This External Treatment for Colds Was First Introduced in Troy, Local Druggists Presented Complimentary Jars to a Few of Their Customers, Requesting That They Report the Results.

Below We Give a Number of These Reports from Troy Citizens.

It does seem ridiculous to say that you can relieve a cold in fifteen minutes, and most colds—either head or chest, in one night, just by applying Vick's Vap-O-Rub Salve, over throat and chest. Actually this treatment is superior to internal medicines and in the South is universally used for all forms of cold troubles, from head colds, asthma and catarrh, down to deep chest colds, sore throat, bronchitis, grippe, or incipient pneumonia. You just apply it over throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth, leaving the covering loose around the neck, as the body heat releases the ingredients in the form of vapors. These medicated vapors are inhaled with each breath all night long, loosening the phlegm and opening the air passages.

John Shattuck, 747 W. Water Street, Troy, Ohio, reports: "It stopped my little five year old son's cough after all other remedies had failed. I can not praise it too highly."

J. C. Stratton, 402 W. Main Street, Troy, Ohio, reports: "I never had a medicine to relieve a cold more promptly."

Mrs. Louella Morris, 734 Ridge Avenue: "I think your Vick's Vap-O-Rub Salve is the best of its kind I have ever used. It gave immediate relief in each case for which I have used it."

Vick's Vap-O-Rub Salve comes in three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00.

much difference how much or how little you used since they are all harmless. A good cleansing mixture adapted to light hair, that brightens without dyeing, is made from equal parts of dried rhubarb and strained honey, steeped for 24 hours in three parts of white wine. At the end of that period the mixture which should have been tightly covered, must be strained and the head and long hair entirely covered with it. The preparation should stay on for at least one-half an hour. It should then be washed off in clear water with a little bicarbonate of soda in the final rinse.

Dear Dolly—As I do all my housework alone, I have rough and red hands. Can you tell me what I should do to get relief?

HOUSEKEEPER.
Rub them well each night before you go to bed with almond cream or some good cold cream. A reliable druggist or department store will recommend a good cream.

Englewood, Ill.—"While going through the Change of Life I suffered with headaches, nervousness, flashes of heat, and I suffered so much that I did not know what I was doing at times. I spent $1900 on doctors and no good. One day a lady called at my house and said she had been so sick as I was at one time, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her well, so I took it and now I am just as well as I ever was. I cannot praise it enough for it saved my life and kept me from the Insane Hospital."—Mrs. E. SHELDON, 657 S. Halsted St., Englewood, Ill.

"Cardui is a Splendid Tonic"

"About six years ago, says Mrs. Emma McBride of Floyd, Alabama, 'I got run down in health. I got a very bad complexion, and dark under my eyes. I kept getting worse and would be so very nervous. I couldn't rest well at night. I suffered great pains in the stomach or lower abdomen, hips, side and back, also had a dull headache. I could hardly do any work at all. . . . and finally for three weeks was confined to my bed and suffered great agony all the time. . . . I was of Boyd, recommended that I take Cardui. . . . After using the third bottle I felt I didn't need any more medicine whatever. I never had another nervous spell and I was well again. . . . It is a splendid tonic. . . . I hope women who suffer as I did will use it.' If you suffer as this lady did, try CARDUI. For sale by all druggists."

TIMES SERVICE PATTERN

A PLEASING COMBINATION

Waist 1619; Skirt 1625—This shows pattern 1619, Ladies' Waist and Ladies' Skirt Pattern 1625.

While it may be fashionable to have the blouse of a color to match the skirt, one often finds that silk and cloth in white, cream or flesh tints are most becoming. In this costume the waist is of cream white Georgette crepe and the skirt of brown mixed homespun. As shown in the small illustration, the waist may be finished in plain outline. The pointed finish is equally pleasing. The skirt has new lines, with popular, practical pockets. The waist is good for lawn, crepe, batiste, satin, silk, dimity and linen. The skirt, for all wash fabrics, broadcloth, serge, voile, gabardine and nun's veiling.

The Skirt Pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure. It requires 4 1/2 yards of 44-inch material for a medium size, and measures 3 yards at the lower edge. The waist is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. It requires 2 1/4 yards of 44-inch material, if made in plain outline. For pointed outline 2 3/4 yards will be required for a 36-inch size.

This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents FOR EACH pattern in silver or stamps.

CAUTION—Order adult patterns by number of pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, and waist measure for skirt patterns. For Misses and Children give number of pattern and age only.

PULLS TRIGGER OF GUN WITH A CANE AND KILLS HIMSELF

Jerome Sprouse, aged 77, a veteran of the Civil War, who resided at Alma, just north of Waverly, ended his life in a tragic manner Sunday afternoon at one o'clock.

Placing the barrel of a shotgun against his breast while sitting up in bed Sprouse snapped the trigger with his cane and his death was instantaneous, the contents of one barrel of the gun piercing his heart. The suicide took place at the home of Reason Crabtree with whom Sprouse resided. Crabtree lives on what is known as Martin Brown farm near Alma.

Members of the Crabtree family stated Monday that Sprouse acted queerly Sunday morning, but they paid little attention to his eccentricities. He gave members of the family some of his valuable papers and told them to keep them for him.

Sprouse upon reaching his room stealthily slipped a shell in one side of the double barrel shot gun, which he used to snuff out his pipe. The gun was standing in a corner of his room and it had not contained any shells for some time.

Coroner J. M. Leslie of Chillicothe was called to Alma Sunday and held an inquest. Sprouse was a member of Company I, 125 O. V. 1. He also served in Company C of the Sixth Ohio Veteran Reserve Corp. He at one time lived at the Soldiers' Home in Dayton. It is said the dead man has relatives in Jackson county.

G. O. P. CLUB WILL ENJOY SMOKER TUESDAY NIGHT

The Scioto County Republican Club will give the first smoker Tuesday night at its rooms on Gallia street at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. P. J. Kline will be the orator of the evening and will tell why the old time Republicanism was and is good enough for him.

Dr. P. W. Young, chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee, will declare the spirit and purpose of the club. With cigars, music and oratory, the occasion will not lack life and animation.

All Republicans who have given their names to any one for membership, or who will join on Tuesday night are invited to be present. As fast as any Republican pays his dollar he becomes a member of the club and is expected to attend all meetings. Some have thought they had nothing to do with the club until it is permanently organized. This impression is wrong as every one who turns in his name for membership comes in on the ground floor at once.

At the meeting last Tuesday evening 44 names of members were turned in. At the meeting of Tuesday night this week the organization committee hopes to have 222 additional names actually reported, turned in. This would make 666 members, or two-thirds of the thousand for which it has set its stakes with the county precincts yet to be heard from. It is known that there are many persons who have actually given in their names, and more too, but the organization committee cannot know who they are and

KNIFE USED IN FIGHT; YOUTH IS BADLY CUT

A near-murder, of which Ernest Newman, aged 17 years, of No. 718 Second street, with a stab wound just over the heart, was the victim, threw the crowded downtown shopping district into a fever of excitement Saturday night.

Barring pneumonia or other complications, young Newman will recover, say attending physicians. The knife-user is still at large, although the police claim to know his identity and hope to have him in custody soon, as he has not left the city, but is in hiding.

The cutting affray occurred near the foot of the stairway leading to the Distal hall, at Seventh and Chillicothe streets, about 9:30 o'clock. Newman and his brother, Stanley Newman, aged 21, and two friends, "Pop" Liles and "Curly" Taylor, had attended the Pizarro medicine show, and in descending the stairway Stanley and Liles were in the lead and Ernest and Taylor followed closely behind. According to Stanley Newman, as they neared the bottom a blackhaired fellow accosted Liles, asking him if he were not the same fellow with whom he had had trouble at the Washington hotel. Liles denied that he ever had any trouble, whereupon the other struck him, knocking him down.

Stanley said that Liles gathered himself together and fled from the scene. The next instant he, himself, was struck from behind and felled to the sidewalk, and when he got up he saw that the black-headed fellow had a knife in his hand, while his red-haired companion was flourishing a razor.

Ran For a Policeman

At this sight he ran down to Chillicothe street and summoned a policeman who was passing. Newman said that when he came back he met his younger brother about midway between the stairway and corner, and Ernest told him that he had been cut, the next instant sinking to his knees in a faint. Stanley, with the aid of Roy Biles and a half-dozen other young men, carried the now badly bleeding boy to the Red Cross Pharmacy. News of the cutting spread like wild-fire and an immense crowd swarmed about the drug store, police and physicians being forced to almost fight their way through. It was found that the knife had not been plunged straight into the body, but rather on an upward angle, to which fact the boy alone owes his life. The knife blade also struck a rib and deflected just above the heart to the left of the apex. He suffered considerably from loss of blood, shock and excitement. As soon as the flow of blood was stopped he was removed by the police patrol to the home of his father, Tobe Newman, a well known carpenter. He had some fever and his pulse was accelerated Sunday, but his condition was reported very satisfactory Monday morning. Had the knife blade gone into the body direct and a little deeper, the boy would have been killed instantly. The blade went through the lapel of his coat, which fact probably caused it to shift its course. He was last employed at the Vulcan last factory. The brother is employed with August Arnold, contracting tinner.

Victim Had Not Been In Argument
The wounded youth had no part in the argument at the foot of the stairway, he claims, and did not know he was wounded until he saw blood streaming down his shirt. He said he would be able to recognize his assailant's face were he to see him again.

According to a story told to the police by Stanley Newman, while the black-haired fellow and Liles were clinched, the former shouted for a companion named "Red" to come to his assistance.

James R. Distel, of the Distal Furniture Company, was looking out of his office window when attracted by a mixup on the sidewalk. He saw a young fellow standing there with blood on his shirt. He held a knife in his right hand and he heard him say, "I've got just as long a knife as you have."

J. A. Arthur, of No. 1812 Vinton avenue, also saw the mixup on the sidewalk. He saw one fellow knock another to his knees and as he was in the act of getting up, knocked him down completely. The next instant two of them seemed to be trying to push the others up the stairway.

An Easy Way to Increase Weight

Good Advice for Thin Folks

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams", or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient.

The Fisher & Steich pharmacy and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

NOTE—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported cure should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

MATHEWS AUTO STRIKES CURB

The wet streets caused the Mathews Hudson touring car to skid Sunday evening at nine o'clock, near the corner of Grant and Officers streets, and strike the curbing, in the impact of which broke the left rear wheel off and bent the running board and fender.

Gerald Matthews, a student at the Oberlin Academy, who was driving the machine, said that he was approaching the corner when he observed the street car coming. He threw out the clutch and put on his brakes. The brakes locked the rear wheels and the machine skidded into the curbing. No one was injured.

CROSS-CRAWFORD FEUD MAY COST OTHER HEADS

Concerning the Cross-Crawford feud at Columbus, the Ohio State Journal says:

"It is now a war of extermination of relatives in the office of J. E. Cross, state supervisor of public printing.

"Having on the pay roll no longer any of his own relatives, whom he says he appointed only for brief periods for emergency work, Cross is said to have served notice that all of the relatives of former State Printer E. A. Crawford, who made the nepotism charges, also must go, if the civil service regulations will permit.

"Beside Ammon Crawford, dismissed recently, another nephew of the former state printer still is in Cross' employ. He is Frank L. Nixon. Nixon formerly was under noncompetitive civil service. Just what his relation to civil service is now is the next thing to be inquired into by Cross.

"The civil service commission has announced that it soon will give examinations for employees of the state printery and bindery. Cross' term expires May 31. It is said that Crawford's friends will try to induce Governor Willis not to reappoint Cross. At the state house, however, it is believed the difficulties will be straightened without Cross' retirement."

New Day Policeman To Be Used For Emergency Calls

The police officials have added a fifth patrolman to the day police force to serve as an emergency man.

Officer John Smith has been selected for the new position and Officer Armour Platt has been taken off the night force to succeed to Smith's West End beat.

Smith will look after all special calls that would otherwise take the day men away from their respective beats. The night districts will be so re-adjusted and divided up that the loss of one patrolman will not be particularly missed.

The officials have felt that four men were insufficient to properly patrol the city in the day, considering the territory to be looked after and have wanted two additional men. What is really needed is a motorcycle mounted officer and the officials eventually hope to secure an arrangement of this kind.

SLOW, BUT INTERESTING

Uncle Joe Cannon relates in a speech before a social club that he asked the census bureau a question and it took him two months to get an answer.

This was the question: "How many of the persons, who voted for Bryan and McKinley in 1896 are living?"

The answer was fifty-one percent. May be the reply was a trifle slow in coming, but it makes up in certain terseness for tardiness. Then, too, it must be understood, the census bureau is an important and dignified branch of the government and it ill comport with importance and dignity to haste.

Waiving that point that "Uncle Joe" complains about with the freeness of old age, we have a most interesting chunk of information—half of the voters, in the most wild, weird and weird campaign that ever distracted the land, have passed to the silent and unknowable beyond, among them he upon whom culmination put the chaplet of victor, hurried to untimely end by a madness, harmonious in unreasonableness and malignancy with that of the campaign. The vanquished, who came out of that struggle as great as the victor, still survives, though time, in its unrelenting corrosion has shorn him of much of his popular stature. Still signs multiply that the future for him yet holds vast possibilities and even if there come no renaissance into his former glory, the issue to which he gave himself with such singular brilliance, will again assume overshadowing importance as a world-wide problem.

But we wander somewhat from first thought. Only twenty years, a short span, indeed, when we think of the mighty march of events and changes since then, have gone by and half of us, who played our part in that titanic struggle, must face the saddening reality that one-half of friends and opponents therein, lie still, their mortal bodies never to hear, to see, to move, to speak, until Gabriel sounds his trumpet call to rise and answer to eternal judgment, not altogether as they did, but as the light appeared to them.

Well then may we ponder with Solomon that all is vanity.

In a drive through the country, last week, we saw more than a ton of manure going to absolute waste in a barn yard. That manure would be worth fifty dollars if it were rightly applied to an acre of ground, in The Times corn contest. We'll bet another fifty the owner of this best of fertilizers, will declare too, he hasn't an acre rich enough to enter in the contest.

The one thing we gather from the rumpus in the state printer's office is that after all there are not so many heathens in Adams county as has been reckoned. They believe down there in providing for one's own, whether Republicans or Democrats and the pay roll of the office reads a good deal like a family tree.

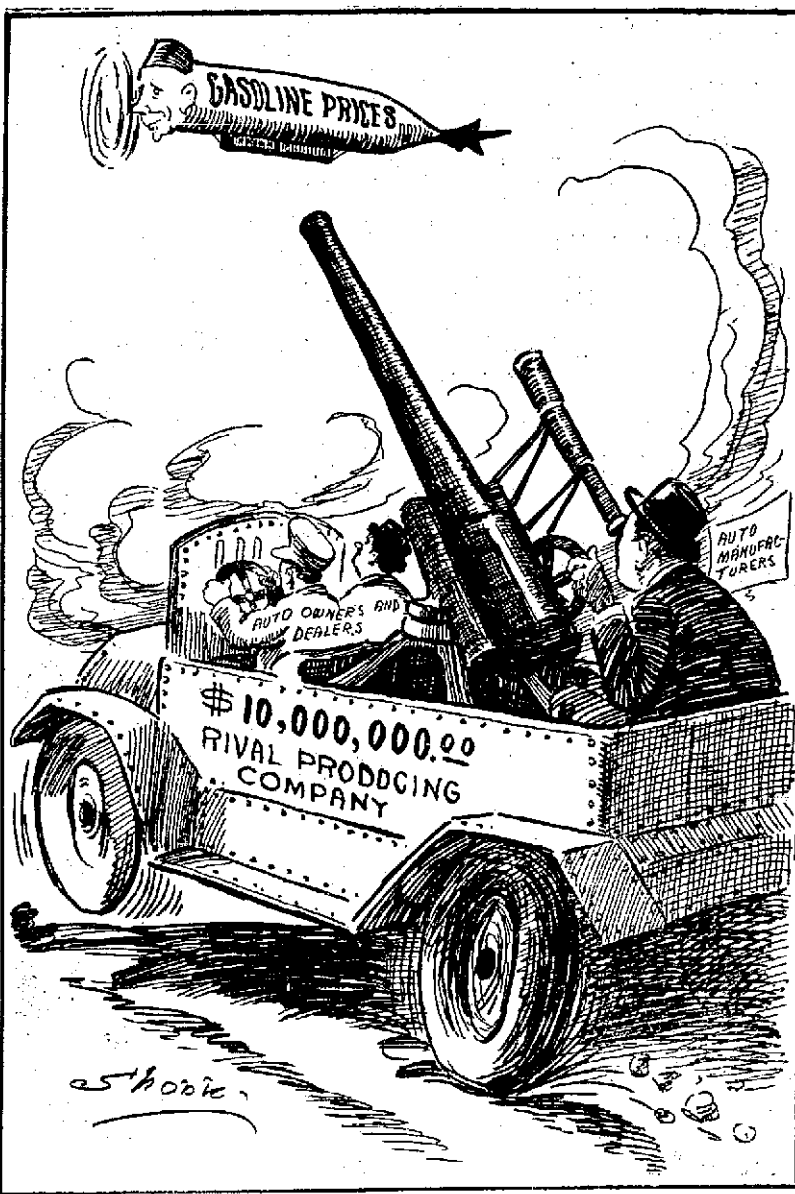

Somewhat we can't bring ourselves to look at the Mexican situation like some other people. We believe our soldier boys are Americans, with the best red blood of all the races in their veins, and they are going to prove themselves by capturing Villa before long and without much loss and trouble. We are a people a bit too quick, we want things to be done at a faster pace than a hurry.

England is again talking about how she is going to break down Germany's trade, after the war. One of the injunctions of an old Irish schoolmaster that lingers clearest in memory, was: "Be sure to catch your hare before you skin him."

The national executive committee of the Republican party has issued a pronouncement defining what constitutes a Republican. As it marks only a family quarrel, Democrats have no call to cavil at the definition.

Once the United States chased Aguinaldo, and let it not be forgotten they got him. More than that they made something of a gentleman, for learning to be and keep quiet are signs of a gentleman.

CAN HE BRING IT DOWN?

IT IS SOME DAY

Tuesday will play a conspicuous part in the calendar of 1916. In the first place a great many industrial concerns observe it as pay day, so it becomes important in home and store to millions. Washington's birthday fell on Tuesday and when we come to celebrate the national Memorial, May 30, it will be found that it is Tuesday. Then the one national holiday, observed by all, July 4th, will fall on Tuesday, and August, the Dog Day month, following, will have five Tuesdays. Preceding four other Tuesdays in the month, on October 31st, comes Hallow'een, Tuesday again. As is always the case, election day will fall on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. By the way, it is a bit peculiar that the law says election day shall be the first Tuesday after the first Monday. The result is at sometimes defer that important date as long as a week. For if the first of November falls on Tuesday, there will have to come a Monday before election can be held. It would have been simpler, if in the original fixing the date should have been set down as the first Tuesday, instead of the present cumbersome and somewhat confusing form. Perhaps, the Founders never thought of its awkwardness themselves being used to have the announcement of church meetings made as such and such a day, after the first, second, third or fourth Sunday of a given month. And that may have been a necessity of the time, because the people not having hundreds of almanacs and calendars shoved at them, found it easiest to reckon by Sunday, the one day they never had to ask anyone, which it was.

When we see Chinese fighting for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, with the right of every man to run for office without in, we can pluck up heart of hope that this old world isn't yet on the toboggan.

MR. JOHNSON'S FAREWELL

One of the most interesting and touching valedictories of a newspaper publisher that we have ever read is that of Mr. J. W. Johnson, in laying down the management of the Waverly Democrat, which paper he has sold, and which will be discontinued. The closing paragraph is quoted below:

"In this final hour of parting, there are a thousand things we should like to say, all of them, however, shorn of bitterness or ill-will. We have fought the fight as we believed it should have been fought, barring errors of judgment, and as far as we are concerned, the battle is over with our most implacable enemy. For years past we believed that the sun of life for us would go down behind the western horizon in Pike county. But fate has decreed it otherwise. Somewhere else we must go now, to establish a new home, to form new acquaintances, knit new friendships and build up a new business. The ties of a quarter of a century's development are not to be severed without poignancy of regret. The loves of almost half a life-time, must, in a measure be left behind. And yet wherever our lot may be cast, we shall never forget the friends we have known and loved in Pike county. The kindnesses and the loyal support we have received outweigh a million fold, all the injuries we have suffered. In this farewell hour, we have no complaints to utter. Possibly we have succeeded as well as we deserved. At all events, we go away bearing no ill-will to any who are left behind. And now,

A last farewell
To friends and loves of years ago.
Before us, the future and the unknown.
Behind, the friendships and the conflicts of the past.
And the with other lives commingling,
Time, upon our memory
Shall leave the fond remembrance
Of the days and years gone by.

Democratic free trade still continues to widen the havoc it is creating with the industry and commerce of the country. Exports of dry goods have reached and passed all records heretofore.

Sometimes we would throw spasms over getting a million dollar industry. The Peerless modestly accepts it as a part of what is coming to her.

The chase of Villa is not conducive to the delusion that Uncle Sam can lick the whole world with one hand tied behind his back.

Not even the double track seems altogether pretenable of collisions between trains going in opposite directions.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, April 3—Lyon "mayor" occupies a position which is one of power. In any of the Latin quarter of Paris: His work appears in magazines of the "zippy-fizzy-whizzy" type. He has found that the tired girls and women like to read about life in Paris so he is writing stories about the life at the Cafe Blanc, Paris.

All of this is not so strange—except Mearson has never been to Paris and admits it. He writes about a kind of life that was never lived in Paris or anywhere else. He is the kind of a literary light that affords the illumination that "never was on sea or land."

A year ago Mearson was press agenting Arnold Daly's production of Bernard Shaw. His dearest aim in life is to be the writer of highbrow drama—and in the meantime he is editing a lowbrow magazine and writing lowbrow stories.

But as he points out most literature is quackery, anyhow. The Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady wrote a novel that had a minute description of fast life in Paris, although the clergyman himself knew nothing about the vicious life he was describing.

"Papa" Burger, the mayor of Avenue C, has celebrated his birthday which is always a joyous event on the East Side. Five hundred guests were there and they feasted on red elauer, szamrodni, searder, yellow tokay wine, gefillte capon, Hungarian strudel and paprikash.

The mayor in his speech referred proudly to the occasion which he considers the most important in his life when President Taft dined in his restaurant. "Papa" Burger is now 67. He was born on the Jewish Purim and counts his years according to that festival's recurrence and not according to the secular calendar.

The custom of the great Hungarian community along Avenue C to confer the title of "mayor" upon one of its prominent men is long established. It is based upon an unwritten law and the village of Ossining is very, very sensitive. Much notoriety is given to Ossining through the proximity of Sing Sing prison. The Ossining chamber of Commerce is asking the newspapers to omit the name of the city in connection with electrocutions at the prison.

When the name of the village was changed from Sing Sing to Ossining it was hoped that it would have a tendency to relieve the situation but this is not the case.

O Time and Change!

When we were kids together, Jane—
Can you that time recall?
And played along the shady lane,
Beneath the maples tall,
You then were nine and I was ten,
And oft I'd say, in fun—
"Just thing, Jane—you'll be twenty when
I come to twenty-one!"

But when I come to twenty-one,
A gawky youth and green,
I wondered how the trick was done—
For you were just eighteen!

Then luring fortune beckoned me—
The world I wandered o'er;
I got back home at thirty-three
And found you twenty-four!

And now I'm getting old, indeed—
These gray hairs make that plain;
My flower of youth has gone to seed—
Pray, what's the secret, Jane?

I'm lost—I know not what to do—
O cruel fate that's mine!
For lo! I now am forty-two.
While you're but twenty-nine!

AIR RAID IS MADE ON SCOTLAND

REGULAR SUNDAY ZEPPELIN ATTACK REPORTED

London, April 3—The east coast of Scotland and the northern and southeastern counties of England were attacked by Zeppelins Sunday night, according to an official announcement by the secretary of war. The announcement says:

"A Zeppelin raid took place Sunday night when the coast of Scotland and the northern and southeastern counties of England were attacked.

"Bombs were dropped at various places."

The Zeppelins which visited the east coast of Scotland Sunday night hung over the district for 45 minutes during which time twenty bombs were dropped.

A Zeppelin which appeared over a northern county yesterday remained about an hour and a half, dropping 20 bombs over a considerable area, largely agricultural.

London, April 3.—With the exception of the big air raid of January 31, when the casualties were 87 persons and 117 injured, the Zeppelin raids of Friday and Saturday nights caused greater loss of life than any previous aerial attack this year.

The total casualties of the two nights, according to an official report, were 69 persons killed, and 166 wounded.

TWO KILLED

Paris, April 3.—A Zeppelin appeared over Dunkirk last night and threw bombs which killed two civilians.

WEATHER

Cloudy in north portion and probably rain in south portion tonight and Tuesday.

WILL NOT RUN

Berlin, April 3. (Wireless to Sayville)—James W. Gerard, the American ambassador, states that he was asked by friends and by the democratic party to run for governor of New York, says the Overseas News agency. He considers it his duty, however, to say in Berlin during the war.

HOLLAND IS TO MAINTAIN NEUTRALITY

The Hague, April 3.—The Associated Press is again authoritatively informed that all apprehensions regarding any impending embroilment of Holland with any foreign power are wholly unfounded, but a considerable section of the public persists in believing that the expected coming offensive by the Allies supposed, planned at the Paris conference, holds the possibility of danger to Holland's neutrality. Public anxiety has been allayed, but has not wholly disappeared, in the absence of a statement from the government to clear up the situation. An alarming bulletin issued in Friday was not issued at the instance of the government.

GERMANS HOLD ENTIRE VILLAGE OF VAUX AFTER DEFEATING FRENCH

Paris, April 3.—A new phase of the battle of Verdun has begun and the belief prevails that the violence of the latest attacks foreshadows another attempt by the Germans to rush the fortress with vast forces. New batteries of large calibre have been moved up closer to the French front, and the German infantry has been rested and reorganized.

Yesterday's fighting on the whole was not unfavorable to the French, it is authoritatively stated. The object of the Germans was to clear the approach to Fort Douaumont and 15,000 men were thrown forward on the mile and a half between Douaumont fort and the village of Vaux. The attacking forces succeeded in crossing a little ravine and in entering the Caillotte wood. Further east they dislodged the French from the last ruined houses of the village of Vaux, but the French positions were so placed as to make it impossible for the Germans to debouch the village. Vigorous French counterattacks drove them back to the upper fringing of Caillotte wood.

The total result of the very formidable effort they had put forward was a gain for the Germans of about 500 yards of terrain, more than offset, it is affirmed, by the very heavy losses they had endured. On the west of the river the Germans attacked the Avocourt block-house in a no less determined manner, but met with complete failure, the observers declare.

Paris, April 3.—Fighting continued all night in the Verdun region east of the Meuse, between Douaumont and Vaux. The issue turned generally, the war office announcement of this afternoon says, in favor of the French who gained ground in the northern part of Caillotte wood which was occupied by the Germans yesterday.

TO BUY AMERICAN WHEAT
The Hague, April 3. (Via London).—Holland's reserves of wheat are practically exhausted, and the Associated Press is informed on the very highest authority that governments intend to buy 100,000 tons in America in order to form the needed reserve.

HUNGRY REFUGEES FROM MEXICO STILL CROSSING THE BORDER

STORIES OF VILLA'S WOUNDS ARE CLAIMED TO BE UNFOUNDED

El Paso, Tex., April 3.—Reports from Mexican sources in the interior received here today asserted Francisco Villa was headed towards Chihuahua City and that his emissaries were attempting to influence the garrison of the town to break from their alliance to the defacto government.

Nothing was said in the reports of Villa's alleged injuries, an omission which helped to confirm the opinion already freely expressed on the border, that the bandit's wounds were an invention of his own, reported with the intention of deceiving his pursuers.

There is something of a mystery attached to the movement of Mexican troops at points close to the border. It is known that large bodies of Carranza soldiers have been moved from camps in the interior to various places within 20 miles of the international line, but no explanation has been given of these maneuvers beyond a general intimation that the defacto government is anticipating an attack by the followers of Diaz, who is now considered the head of the Centrist party.

Columbus, N. M., April 3.—Military authorities here today were inclined to believe Colonel George A. Dodd's American cavalrymen are still searching for the bandit leader in some remote mountain wilderness of Guerrero, far out of communication with the field base at Colonia Dublan.

The stockade to be erected here to confine the prisoners captured at Guerrero will be of barbed wire hanging to which will be hundreds of tin cans partly filled with pebbles. Guards to be placed at intervals, along the fence, would be notified of any attempted escape by the rattle of the pebbles in the cans.

Laredo, Tex., April 3.—Military authorities at Nuevo Laredo, opposite here, declared today the reported defection of Colonel Cano's forces in Chihuahua was untrue. They said the Chihuahua forces were loyal and were "working indefatigably for the apprehension of Villa."

HEAVY TOLL IS CLAIMED BY SUBS

London, April 3.—Included in the list of steamers sunk Sunday are three British vessels. The Ashburton, Goldmouth, and Achilles are the victims. The Ashburton, 4445 tons, was sunk by shrapnel shell, fired by a German submarine. Five members of the crew have been taken to a hospital.

The crew of the Goldmouth, 7,446 tons, was saved, but two were injured. The captain and 82 others of the crew were saved when the liner Achilles went down. Four are missing. The Norwegian steamer Peter Marure, 1,080 tons, was sunk Saturday night while at anchor. One man, the sole survivor of the crew of the fifteen, has been landed.

The British steamship Perth has been sunk. Several members of the crew were lost and eight were landed. The Perth was unarmed.

THROW MILK TO THE HOGS AT CLEVELAND

Cleveland, O., April 3.—Cleveland today faced a milk shortage while producers are fighting for higher prices.

Producers are throwing great quantities of milk to the hogs rather than ship it to Cleveland at a loss.

A demand for a price increase from 12 and 13 cents a gallon to 15 cents has been made.

There will be an absolute embargo on shipments of milk to Cleveland unless the price is met by the wholesalers, says a prominent producer.

13 COUNTIES ARE VOTING ON THE LIQUOR QUESTION IN MICHIGAN

Detroit, Mich., April 3.—A bitter struggle staged in Michigan for weeks between wet and dry forces, reached its climax today when voters in 13 counties cast their ballots at local option elections.

Of the counties voting, Ingham, Roscommon, Wexford and Mecosta are now without saloons; Jackson, Lake, Ogemaw, Manistee, Clare, Isabella, Schoolcraft, Delta and Baraga are in the wet column. In 1914, Ingham county, which contains Lansing, the state capital, went dry by a majority of 1,108 and Jackson county, with the city of Jackson, voted wet by a majority of more than 1,000.

MICHIGAN HOLDING PRIMARY

Detroit, Mich., April 3.—Michigan's presidential primary law was given its initial trial today. Electors went to the polls to register their preference for candidates who are expected to figure in the national conventions this summer.

The National Progressive party is without a candidate. Woodrow Wilson was the only Democratic candidate.

Three names were on the Republican ballot: William Alden Smith, United States senator, of Grand Rapids; Henry Ford, of Detroit; and William G. Simpson, of Detroit.

Team Building To Be Arduous Task

"It looks like we will have more trouble in getting a good ball club together this spring than we have had for several years," President O'Brien stated while discussing the prospects of the local team.

"Macdonald, Bush and McHenry are already under contract but it takes more than three good men to make a first-class baseball machine. As soon as the guarantee fund is raised the task of building a new team will be taken up in earnest," by O'Brien and Manager Spencer said.

Manager Spencer has received more than 75 letters from young ball players during the winter months and some of these lads will be asked to report.

Favors Scout System

The baseball war of the past two years started a regime of economy in the major league that resulted in expenses being cut at every possible point.

One of the items out of the list by several clubs was the elimination of their scouting staff. It was figured that the big expense of cartage, board and lodging, in addition to a good salary, would be saved by taking a chance on picking up recruits on the recommendation of friends of the club, and by watching the records. Now, with the war ended, several teams are considering the re-employment of their scouting staff.

Black Herring, of the Reds, is one of the firm believers in scouts. He thinks it is a good investment to have a set of experienced and reliable men pass their judgment on a player before signing him.

MAY RECALL DILLINGER

Harry Dillinger, who beat the Reds by 20 runs last season while they were in New Orleans, is likely to be recalled by the Cleveland Indians. Dillinger is the big southpaw, who several seasons ago beat Portsmouth in the opening game at Irons and held the River City off a hit. Irons won the game 6 to 1.

The Value Of Baker

Various opinions have been expressed as to Baker's ability to return with a 200 gnat in his batting eye.

But why should one off-season affect his wallowing orb? There are at least two eminent precedents to cover the Baker case. In 1905 Jimmy Callahan quit the White Sox. He quit with a batting average of .272. For the next five years he paddled around with a semi-pro club.

Then in 1911 he rejoined his old major league camp and batted .281, nine points higher than he had batted when he left off. In 1907 Mike Donlin left the Giants. Michael ceased with an average of .314 in 1905. In 1911 he decided to return and that year with Boston and New York, batted .316, a gain of two points.

So if J. Franklin Baker follows the Callahan-Donlin system of quitting and returning, he should bat better this season than he did in 1914.

Cincinnati Boys Signed

Manager Walt Powell is going to re-sign his Cincinnati team. He has already signed several Cincinnati boys for his club. They will report to his club for spring practice April 25.

It is said that Manager Herzog of the Reds has decided on his outfield for the opening of the season and its patrolmen will be Beall, Griffiths and Killifer.

ROOKIES HAD WORK OUT

Rookies of Billy Doyle's baseball school enjoyed a splendid workout at Millbrook Sunday despite the fact that the weather was not very propitious for the old game. Rookies will be rolling in every day this week and Doyle will arrange for a regular game between his fledglings and a local team, the game to be played in Millbrook next Sunday.

BARTENDERS MET SUNDAY

Billy Gergens, Jr., and George Lust were admitted to membership in the Portsmouth Bartenders' Union at the regular meeting of that organization Sunday.

Both new members are employed at Julius Arbogast's cafe, corner of Eleventh and Union streets, which was given a fund card Monday.

Drew 11,000 Fans

New York is surely some fight town. Fredrick Welsh and Benny Leonard in their ten-round go, in Madison Square Garden last Friday night drew 11,000 fight fans. The Willard-Moran battle only drew an audience of 13,000 in the same place. It is estimated that there are 25-ten round battles in various athletic clubs every night in the week in New York.

CLAIM MULES IN C. & O. CAMPS ARE MISTREATED

Scottdale, O., April 3, 1916. Ed. of The Times.—I would like to call the public's attention to a matter that ought to be looked after, and that is the way they are beating and abusing poor old mules in the construction camps on the C. & O. railroad. I saw a negro whip his team in Scottdale the other day and it was something awful. These poor old mules are working seven days out of the week, hardly able to lift one foot above the other. I thought at the time how many Union soldiers gave their lives to take the lash from their backs, then see what little mercy they will show when they are master.

FIRST VISIT IN 30 YEARS

After an absence of 30 years, Henry J. Maco, of Memphis, Tenn., who at one time was mate on the old Bonanza, Kerstone State and the City of Clifton, arrived here Friday and is marveling at the vast changes in the city since he last saw it. He is the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. A. Moore, who lives at Moore's Landing, four miles west of the city.

Mr. Maco, when a resident of this city, lived near Seventh and Chillicothe streets and he will be recalled by many of the older residents of the city.

Mr. Maco last October had his left leg broken in four places when an automobile in which he was riding in Memphis had a collision with a big motor truck. He had a close call from being crushed to death beneath the ponderous truck.

SLOW, BUT INTERESTING

Uncle Joe Cannon relates in a speech before a social club that he asked the census bureau a question and it took him two months to get an answer.

This was the question: "How many of the persons, who voted for Bryan and McKinley in 1896, are living?"

The answer was fifty-one percent. May be the reply was a trifle slow in coming, but it makes up in certain terseness for tardiness. Then, too, it must be understood, the census bureau is an important and dignified branch of the government and it is composed with importance and dignity to haste.

Waiving that point that "Uncle Joe" complains about with the fretfulness of old age, we have a most interesting chunk of information—half of the voters, in the most wild, weird and wool campaign that ever distracted the land, have passed to the silent and unknowable beyond, among them he upon whom culmination put the chaplet of victor, hurried to untimely end by a madness, harmonious in unreasonableness and malignancy with that of the campaign. The vanquished, who came out of that struggle as great as the victor, still survives, though time, in its unrelenting corrosion has shorn him of much of his popular stature. Still signs multiply that the future for him yet holds vast possibilities and even if there come no renaissance into his former glory, the issue to which he gave himself with such singular brilliance, will again assume overshadowing importance as a world-wide problem.

But we wander somewhat from first thought. Only twenty years, a short span, indeed, when we think of the mighty march of events and changes since then, have gone by and half of us, who played our part in that titanic struggle, must face the saddening reality that one-half of friends and opponents therein, lie still, their mortal bodies never to hear, to see, to move, to speak, until Gabriel sounds his trumpet call to rise and answer to eternal judgment, not altogether as they did, but as the light appeared to them.

Well then may we ponder with Solomon that all is vanity.

In a drive through the country, last week, we saw more than a ton of manure going to absolute waste in a barn yard. That manure would be worth fifty dollars if it were rightly applied to an acre of ground, in the Times corn contest. We'll bet another fifty the owner of this best of fertilizers, will declare too, he hasn't an acre rich enough to enter in the contest.

The one thing we gather from the rumpus in the state printer's office is that after all there are not so many heathens in Adams county as has been reckoned. They believe down there in providing for one's own, whether Republicans or Democrats and the pay roll of the office reads a good deal like a family tree.

Somewhat we can't bring ourselves to look at the Mexican situation like some other people. We believe our soldier boys are Americans, with the best red blood of all the races in their veins, and they are going to prove themselves by capturing Villa before long and without much loss and trouble. We are a people a bit too quick, we want things to be done at a faster pace than a hurry.

England is again talking about how she is going to break down Germany's trade, after the war. One of the injunctions of an old Irish schoolmaster that lingers clearest in memory, was: "Be sure to catch your hare before you skin him."

The national executive committee of the Republican party has issued a pronouncement defining what constitutes a Republican. As it marks only a family quarrel, Democrats have no call to cavil at the definition.

Once the United States chased Aguinaldo, and let it not be forgotten they got him. More than that they made something of a gentleman, for learning to be and keep quiet are signs of a gentleman.

CAN HE BRING IT DOWN?

IT IS SOME DAY

Tuesday will play a conspicuous part in the calendar of 1916. In the first place a great many industrial concerns observe it as pay day, so it becomes important in home and store to millions. Washington's birthday fell on Tuesday, and when we come to celebrate the national Memorial, May 30, it will be found that it is Tuesday. Then the one national holiday, observed by all, July 4th, will fall on Tuesday, and August, the Dog Day month, following, will have five Tuesdays. Preceding four other Tuesdays in the month, on October 31st, comes Halloween, Tuesday again. As is always the case, election day will fall on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. By the way, it is a bit peculiar that the law says election day shall be the first Tuesday after the first Monday. The result is to sometimes defer that important date as long as a week. For if the first of November falls on Tuesday, there will have to come a Monday before election can be held. It would have been simpler, if in the original fixing the date should have been set down as the first Tuesday, instead of the present cumbersome and somewhat confusing form. Perhaps the Founders never thought of its awkwardness themselves being used to have the announcement of church meetings made as such and such a day, after the first, second, third or fourth Sunday of a given month. And that may have been a necessity of the time, because the people not having hundreds of almanacs and calendars shoved at them, found it easiest to reckon by Sunday, the one day they never had to ask anyone, which it was.

When we see Chinese fighting for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, with the right of every man to run for office thrown in, we can pluck up heart of hope that this old world isn't yet on the wobbler.

The house having voted to investigate Doc Cook's discovery, alleged or otherwise, the Cleveland Leader moves that it send a committee, preferably one of the whole, to the North Pole to investigate.

By a sort of contrariety, the hopelessness of the situation to the Turks is sounded in the silence of the Constantinople claims bureau.

The Ohio never seems so lovely as when she is receding after a flush.

"More building on the hilltops this year than ever before." Well, all right, we like to hear that sort of talk.

MR. JOHNSON'S FAREWELL

One of the most interesting and touching valedictories of a newspaper publisher that we have ever read is that of Mr. J. W. Johnson, in laying down the management of the Waverly Democrat, which paper he has sold, and which will be discontinued. The closing paragraph is quoted below:

"In this final hour of parting, there are a thousand things we should like to say, all of them, however, shorn of bitterness or ill-will. We have fought the fight as we believed it should have been fought, barring errors of judgment, and as far as we are concerned, the battle is over with our most implacable enemy. For years past we believed that the sun of life for us would go down behind the western horizon in Pike county. But fate has decreed it otherwise. Somewhere else we must go now, to establish a new home, to form new acquaintances, knit new friendships and build up a new business. The ties of a quarter of a century's development are not to be severed without poignancy of regret. The loves of almost half a life-time, must, in a measure be left behind. And yet wherever our lot may be cast, we shall never forget the friends we have known and loved in Pike county. The kindnesses and the loyal support we have received outweigh a million fold, all the injuries we have suffered. In this farewell hour, we have no complaints to utter. Possibly we have succeeded as well as we deserved. At all events, we go away bearing no ill-will to any who are left behind. And now,

A last farewell
To friends and loves of years ago.
Before us, the future and the unknown.
Behind, the friendships and the conflicts of the past.
And the with other lives commingling
Time, upon our memory
Shall leave the fond remembrance
Of the days and years gone by.

Democratic free trade still continues to widen the havoc it is creating with the industry and commerce of the country. Exports of dry goods have reached and passed all records heretofore.

Sometimes we would throw spasms over getting a million dollar industry. The Peerless modestly accepts it as a part of what is coming to her.

The chase of Villa is not conducive to the delusion that Uncle Sam can lick the whole world with one hand tied behind his back.

Not even the double track seems altogether preventable of collisions between trains going in opposite directions.

Mighty few papers are going to complain of congress taking a peep into the why and wherefore of the high price of gasoline—they all use it.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O-O-M-INTYRE.

New York, April 8.—Lyon Mearson is writing stories of life in the Latin quarter of Paris. His work appears in magazines of the "zippy-fizzy-whizzy" type. He has found that the tired girls and women like to read about life in Paris so he is writing stories about the life at the Cafe Blanc, Paris.

All of this is not so strange—except Mearson has never been to Paris and admits it. He writes about a kind of life that was never lived in Paris or anywhere else. He is in the kind of a literary light that affords the illumination that "never was on sea or land."

A year ago Mearson was press agenting Arnold Daly's production of Bernard Shaw. His dearest aim in life is to be the writer of highbrow drama—and in the meantime he is editing a lowbrow magazine and writing lowbrow stories.

But as he points out most literature is quackery, anyhow. The Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady wrote a novel that had a minute description of just life in Paris, although the clergyman himself knew nothing about the vicious life he was describing.

"Papa" Burger, the mayor of Avenue C, has celebrated his birthday which is always a joyous event on the East Side. Five hundred guests were there and they feasted on red elater, szamrodm, scarder, yellow tokay wine, gefilte capon, Hungarian strudel and paprika.

The mayor in his speech referred proudly to the occasion which he considers the most important in his life when President Taft dined in his restaurant. "Papa" Burger is now 67. He was born on the Jewish Purim and counts his years according to that festival's recurrence and not according to the secular calendar.

The custom of the great Hungarian community along Avenue C to confer the title of "mayor" upon one of its prominent men is long established. It is based upon an unwritten law and the "mayor" occupies a position which is one of power. In anything from the adjustment of a family controversy to the decision of large political questions affecting the entire community he is the referee, whose word is accepted as final.

Dr. R. F. Bolitz, who just arrived from Petrograd, has brought the announcement that Russia has been taken over by Germany. He strode up to the desk of the Hotel Majestic and wrote:

"Dr. R. F. Bolitz, Petrograd, Germany."

The clerk whirled the book around. "Er-ah, Doctor," said he mildly, "is there a Petrograd in Germany?"

"There is," said the Herr Doctor firmly. "All Petrograd is in Germany."

"Well, well," said the clerk, who hasn't seen a geography in seven years. "Well, well, and I always thought it was in Russia." "Hereafter all good Germans from Petrograd will register it in Germany, for it is so soon if not yet," said Dr. Bolitz.

The village of Ossining is very, very sensitive. Much notoriety is given to Ossining through the proximity of Sing Sing prison. The Ossining chamber of Commerce is asking the newspapers to omit the name of the city in connection with the electrocutions at the prison.

When the name of the village was changed from Sing Sing to Ossining it was hoped that it would have a tendency to relieve the situation but this is not the case.

Nearly every hotel in town gave a Mi-Careme ball. Someone asked Orson Lowell, the artist, if he was going to one of the Mi-Careme affairs at a big Broadway hotel.

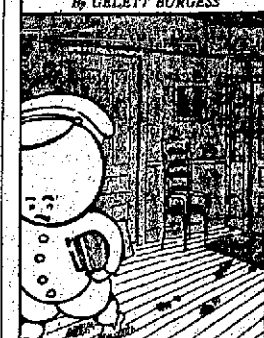

"Me going?" he said. "Of course I'm not going why I can't even pronounce it."

Next Sunday morning Rev. George P. Horst, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, will preach upon the subject, "Interceding for Me." This will be the fifth sermon of a Lenten series on the "Atonement."

A little lad was asked by a pious passerby one lovely morning: "Have you ever studied the Bible?"

"Then, of course, you know all about the parables."

O Time and Change!

When we were kids together, Jane—

Can you that time recall?—
And played along the shady lane,
Beneath the maples tall,
You then were nine and I was ten,
And oft I'd say, in fun—
"Just thing, Jane—you'll be twenty when
I come to twenty-one!"

But when I come to twenty-one,
A gawky youth and green,
I wondered how the trick was done—
For you were just eighteen!

Then luring fortune beckoned me—
The world I wandered o'er,
I got back home at thirty-three
And found you twenty-four!

And now I'm getting old, indeed—
These gray hairs make that plain;
My flower of youth has gone to seed—
Pray, what's the secret, Jane!

I'm lost—I know not what to do—
O cruel fate that's mine!
For lo! I now am forty-two.
While you're but twenty-nine!

How the girls ever get up early enough to get their hair fixed—the way some of them have it—is a mystery. Maybe all they have to do is to pin it on.—Akron Beacon Journal.

Effete Kansas

A young man who bore the earmarks of one who has spent a great deal of time in the rural districts walked into a Cherryvale grocery the other day and asked for a 10-cent bottle of vanilla. He told the shop-keeper that he hadn't wrapped it up, as he would take it just as it was. As soon as the purchase was made the youth took out of his pocket a folded white handkerchief, removed the work from the bottle and poured a small amount of the liquid on the cloth. The clerk must have shown surprise, for the boy smiled pleasantly and explained, "There's going to be a social out our way tonight."—The Cherryvale (Kan.) Republican.

His Favorite Parable
A little lad was asked by a pious passerby one lovely morning: "Have you ever studied the Bible?"
"Yes, sir," he said.
"Then, of course, you know all about the parables."
"Oh, yes, sir."
"Good!" said the devout gentleman. "And now tell me which parable do you like the best?"

The boy, looking over the green and pleasant country, answered: "I like the one where everybody loads and fishes."—Exchange.

KNIFE USED IN A FIGHT; YOUTH IS BADLY CUT

SATURDAY NIGHT CROWD IS EXCITED BY AFFAIR; KNIFE USER AT LARGE

A post-mortem, of which Ernest Newman, aged 17 years, of No. 718 Second street, with a stab wound just over the heart, was the victim, threw the crowded downtown shopping district into a fever of excitement Saturday night.

Barring pneumonia or other complications, young Newman will recover, say attending physicians. The knife user is still at large, although the police claim to know his identity and hope to have him in custody soon, as he has not left the city, but is in hiding.

The cutting affair occurred near the foot of the stairway leading to the Daniel hall at Seventh and Chillicothe streets, about 9:30 o'clock. Newman and his brother, Stanley Newman, aged 21, and two friends, "Fay" Liles and "Curly" Taylor, had attended the Pizzaro machine show, and in descending the stairway, Stanley and Liles were in the lead and Ernest and Taylor followed closely behind. According to Stanley Newman, as they neared the bottom a black-haired fellow accosted Liles, asking him if he were not the same fellow with whom he had had trouble at the Washington hotel. Liles denied that he ever had any trouble, whereupon the other struck him, knocking him down.

Stanley said that Liles gathered himself together and fled from the scene. The next instant he himself was struck from behind and felled to the sidewalk, and when he got up he saw that the black-headed fellow had a knife in his hand, while his red-haired companion was flourishing a razor.

At this time he ran down to Chillicothe street and summoned a policeman who was passing. Newman said that when he came back he met his younger brother about midway between the stairway and corner, and Ernest told him that he had been cut, the next instant sinking to his knees in a faint. Stanley, with the aid of Roy Bliss and a half-dozen other young men, carried the now badly bleeding boy to the Red Cross Pharmacy. News of the cutting spread like wild-fire and an immense crowd swarmed about the drug store, police and physicians being forced to almost fight their way through. It was found that the knife had not been plunged straight into the body, but rather on an upward angle, to which fact the boy alone owes his life. The knife blade also struck a rib and deflected just above the heart to the left of the apex. He suffered considerably from loss of blood, shock and excitement. He was stopped by the police patrol to the home of his father, Tobe Newman, a well known carpenter. He had some fever and his pulse was accelerated. Sunday, but his condition was reported very satisfactory Monday morning. Had the knife blade gone into the body direct and a little deeper, the boy would have been killed instantly. The blade went through the lapel of his coat, which fact probably caused it to shift its course. He was last employed at the Vulcan last factory. The brother is employed with August Arnold, contracting tinner.

Victim Had Not Been In Argument
The wounded youth had no part in the argument at the foot of the stairway, he claims, and did not know he was wounded until he saw blood streaming down his shirt. He said he would be able to recognize his assailant's face were he to see him again.

According to a story told to the police by Stanley Newman, while the black-haired fellow and Liles were clenching, the former shouted for a companion named "Red" to come to his assistance.

James R. Distel, of the Distel Furniture Company, was looking out of his office window when attracted by a mixup on the sidewalk. He saw a young fellow standing there with blood on his shirt. He held a knife in his right hand and he heard him say, "I've got just as long a knife as you have."

J. A. Arthur, of No. 1812 Vinton avenue, also saw the mixup on the sidewalk. He saw one fellow knock another to his knees and as he was in the act of getting up, knocked him down completely. The next instant two of them seemed to be trying to push the others up the stairway.

CROSS-CRAWFORD FEUD MAY COST OTHER HEADS

Concerning the Cross-Crawford feud at Columbus, the Ohio State Journal says:

"It is now a war of extermination of relatives in the office of J. E. Cross, state supervisor of public printing."

"Having on the pay roll no longer any of his own relatives, whom he says he appointed only for brief periods for emergency work, Cross is said to have served notice that all of the relatives of former State Printer E. A. Crawford, who made the nepotism charges, also must go, if the civil service regulations will permit."

"Beside Ammon Crawford, dismissed recently, another nephew of the former state printer still is in Cross' employ. He is Frank L. Nixon. Nixon formerly was under noncompetitive civil service. Just what his relation to civil service is now is the next thing to be inquired into by Cross."

"The civil service commission has announced that it soon will give examinations for employees of the state printer and bindery. Cross' term expires May 31. It is said that Crawford's friends will try to induce Governor Willis to reappoint Cross. At the state house, however, it is believed the difficulties will be straightened without Cross' retirement."

RIVER WITHIN IT BANKS AGAIN IN PORTSMOUTH

The Ohio river since beginning to recede last Friday, had dropped back six feet up to Monday morning at 7 o'clock, when the government gauge showed 47 ft. and falling.

The river is expected to fall more rapidly from now on unless checked by general rains. Sunday's rainfall here was only .17, but it was raining harder Monday morning. The Ohio was again within its banks along the city front proper, but backwater still extended over the lowlands in the vicinity of upper Mill and Front streets, near Walker and Union streets and below the mouth of the Scioto river.

Families in the flooded district spent Sunday clearing their premises of mud and debris and in drying their basements and ground floor rooms. A few families had moved back into Red Row Sunday and Monday.

Sight-seers were out en masse viewing the big river, there being a steady procession along the river front, and particularly to the new county bridge. Many availed themselves of the opportunity for a ride across the backwaters on board the ferryboat Bona.

Packet departures announced for Tuesday are as follows: Greenwood up for Pomeroy at 2 p. m.; Greyhound for Huntington at 3 p. m.

The packet Klondike has dropped from its moorings just below the wharfboat to below Madison street, in order to receive power from the Portsmouth Brewery for finishing repairs to her broken shaft. It is hoped to have the boat ready for re-entering the Portsmouth-Rome trade by the middle of the week.

The wet streets caused the Mattheus Hudson touring car to slide the Obelin Academy, who was driving the machine, said that he was approaching the corner when he observed the street car coming. He threw out the clutch and put on his brakes. The brakes locked the rear wheels and the machine skidded into the curbing. No one was injured.

VIENNA CAMP WILL INITIATE CANDIDATES

The meeting of Vienna Camp, Sons of Veterans, tomorrow

(Tuesday) evening in Selby (G. A. R.) hall, corner Gallia and Findlay streets, will be featured by the initiation into the order of several well known gentlemen. Among those coming into the camp at this meeting are Clerk of Courts John Hall, Court Bailiff Wylie Kates, Prof. Ross, Supt. of New Boston school, Floyd Saylor, an N. & W. car inspector. All candidates are asked to report at the hall by 8:30 Tuesday evening. The ladies of Vienna Auxiliary will attend and the meeting promises to be one of the best held by the camp in a long time.

Among important matters on schedule are the "Preparedness" Movement, Appomattox Day, April 9 and G. A. R. Day late in May, to do honor to the living members of the grand army.

Crabtree Was Prepared But Plans Were Upset By Unknown Thieves

Plans of preparedness of John Crabtree, a Wakefield, Pike county citizen, were rudely upset when his automobile was stolen from the corner of Eleventh and Chillicothe streets, Saturday night, at 11 o'clock.

While police were busy scouring the city in search of the missing car, Harry Ray, a shoemaker, of No. 1638 Eighth street, on his way home at one o'clock Sunday morning, was attracted to a mud-bespattered machine standing on Bond street, between Fourth and Gallia streets. He had overheard Capt. Roma Walker speaking of the stolen car and notified headquarters.

It proved to be Crabtree's car, but a ham, two suits of overalls, two quarts and two pints of whiskey were missing from the machine.

Crabtree had still more hard luck in store for him, for a few minutes after the car's removal to headquarters, Crabtree noticed his dollar supply of beefsteak, that was still on the floor of the machine when found, was gone. Capt. Walker a moment later saw a cat up the alley gnawing at said steak. Crabtree left for that dear Wakefield a sadder, but wiser man.

G. O. P. CLUB WILL ENJOY SMOKER TUESDAY NIGHT

The Scioto County Republican Club will give the first smoker Tuesday night at its rooms on Gallia street at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. P. J. Kline will be the orator of the evening and will tell why the old time Republicanism was and is good enough for him. Dr. P. W. Young, chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee, will declare the spirit and purpose of the club. With cigars, music and oratory, the occasion will not lack life and animation.

All Republicans who have given their names to any one for membership, or who will join on Tuesday night are invited to be present. As fast as any Republican pays his dollar he becomes a member of the club and is expected to attend all meetings. Some have thought they had nothing to do with the club until it is permanently organized. This impression is wrong as every one who turns in his name for membership comes in on the ground floor at once.

At the meeting last Tuesday evening 444 names of members were turned in. At the meeting of Tuesday night this week, the organization committee hopes to have 222 additional names actually reported, turned in. This would make 666 members, or two-thirds of the thousand for which it has set its stakes, with the county precincts yet to be heard from. It is known that there are that many persons who have actually given in their names, and more too, but the organization committee cannot know who they are, and record them until their names are turned in. An urgent appeal is therefore made to every canvasser for new members to report all names secured at the Tuesday night meeting without fail. Some canvassers have a laudable desire to fill out the entire ten membership certificates in their books before reporting at all, but this impedes the organization committee in its work. The correct method is to be present Tuesday night, turn in all the names that have been secured, and then go on the hunt for more members for the next meeting.

The Times is asked to call attention to the fact that one dollar pays the dues for the year 1916. There is no admission or initiation fee. The entire expense to any member is one dollar only.

New Day Policeman To Be Used For Emergency Calls

The police officials have added a fifth patrolman to the day police force to serve as an emergency man.

Officer John Smith has been selected for the new position and Officer Armour Platt has been taken off the night force to succeed to Smith's West End beat.

Smith will look after all special calls that would otherwise take the day men away from their respective beats. The night districts will be so re-adjusted and divided up that the loss of one patrolman will not be particularly missed.

The officials have felt that four men were insufficient to properly patrol the city in the day, considering the territory to be looked after and have wanted two additional men. What is really needed is a motorcycle mounted officer and the officials eventually hope to secure an arrangement of this kind.

NOTICE TO OWLS

The Owls will hold their weekly meeting tonight in their new hall, Sixth and Chillicothe streets, at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to notice the change of meeting place and to notify all Owls possible. The class initiation and banquet to have been held tonight has been postponed until next week on account of several members of the degree team being absent.

12 CARS PILED UP IN N. & W. WRECK

Wrecking crews of the N. & W. at Kenova and Clare were called to clear up a serious derailment at Lawshee, Adams county, where yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock a west bound freight train in charge of Engineers Carlos Pyles and F. H. Miller and Conductor Boyles piled up 12 cars loaded with coal. The track was torn up for some distance and as a result traffic on the Cincinnati division of the N. & W. was at a standstill from 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon till 9 o'clock last night.

Passenger train No. 25, which leaves here daily at 3:30, departed to Cincinnati by way of Chillicothe, using the B. & O. S. W. tracks from Chillicothe into the Queen City. Passenger train No. 37 leaving here at 2:20 daily, was held up this side of the derailment, the train arriving in Cincinnati near the midnight hour last night.

Supt. J. T. Carey, Assistant Superintendent H. T. Reinicker and Trainmaster G. F. Turley, were soon at the scene of the derailment and took charge of the work of clearing the tracks so that traffic could be resumed.

N. & W. officials are investigating the cause of the wreck.

PULLS TRIGGER OF GUN WITH A CANE AND KILLS HIMSELF

Jerome Sprouse, aged 77, a veteran of the Civil War, who resided at Alma, just north of Waverly, ended his life in a tragic manner Sunday afternoon at one o'clock.

Placing the barrel of a shotgun against his breast while sitting up in bed Sprouse snapped the trigger with his cane and his death was instantaneous, the contents of one barrel of the gun piercing his heart. The suicide took place at the home of Renson Crabtree with whom Sprouse resided. Crabtree lives on what is known as Martin Brown farm near Alma.

Members of the Crabtree family stated Monday that Sprouse acted queerly Sunday morning, but they paid little attention to his eccentricities. He gave members of the family some of his valuable papers and told them to keep them for him.

Sprouse upon reaching his room stealthily slipped a shell in one side of the double barrel shot gun, which he used to snuff out his life. The gun was standing in a corner of his room and it had not contained any shells for some time.

Coroner J. M. Leslie of Chillicothe was called to Alma Sunday and held an inquest. Sprouse was a member of Company 1, 125 O. V. I. He also served in Company C of the Sixth Ohio Veteran Reserve Corp. He at one time lived at the Soldiers' Home in Dayton. It is said the dead man has relatives in Jackson county.

DEFEATS TEND TO HURT THE LOSERS

Chicago, April 3—The seven straight defeats which the Philadelphia Nationals administered to the Cubs in Florida this year, have influenced President Chas. H. President Weegham contends that defeats tend to weaken the losing club.

The Movies

At The Arcana
"The High Flyers" is an interesting Victor drama, a two-reel number featuring Harry C. Meyers and Rosemary Theby. This follows the style of George Ade's fables and is amusing throughout. The two leading characters, Miss High Life and Mr. Dupe, are well portrayed, also those of Miss Plain and Mr. Honest. The first couple marries and comes to grief because they try to live in a $200 flat on $20 a week; the second couple fares better. The sub-titles are full of modern slang and make entertaining reading.
"A Hot Time in Ireland" is a Powers comedy full of laughs, followed by "Artistic Interference," a special Imp comedy drama with Imp stars.

WITH THE SICK
Daehler's ambulance removed Miss Grace E. Gynan, of 1911 Timmons avenue, to Hempstead hospital Sunday for a surgical operation. Miss Gynan is a daughter of Thomas M. Gynan, clerk of the public safety department.
